

International Day of Peace

What does peace mean?

Peace is a word that holds many different meanings. It is a word that can be used in a lot of different ways. The definition of peace is freedom from disturbance, a time of tranquillity when you are not disturbed by anyone or anything. There are also the definitions a state or period in which there is no war, or a state free of war.

The United Nations

In 1945, representatives from 51 countries around the world met in San Francisco in the United States of America (USA) after the Second World War had ended. The world was left in a state. There was no longer trust between neighbouring countries and there was no longer any peace. The representatives from each of the 51 countries decided that they must do something to establish peace and so a very important document was signed. The document was made up of four very important agreements. The agreements were:

- To establish international peace and security
- To develop friendly relations among nations based on respect for equal rights
- To achieve international co-operation in solving international problems
- To be a centre for harmonising the action of nations in the maintenance of law and justice

Peace

There are two different meanings for the word 'peace'.

One for all a symbol of co-existence

The Responsibility

Resolving issues is our responsibility. It is one of the ways that we can help to spread peace around the world. Resolving issues may look different to some and we do these in many different ways. Some of these are:

- to talk
- find common causes of issues with those who are different to us
- listen to people's opinions. There will always be a right answer but working together for the common good helps to spread freedom and peace.

Many analysts have noted that this is an age of high anxiety Nowadays most bookstores have shelves of books documenting people s anxious condition and offering a variety of self help cures The Search for Shalom is not a self help book Rather it argues that self guided efforts to treat this anxious condition will only make it worse The search for peace must lead elsewhere Many people have been scammed by Satan the prince of scammers As a result they don t give much attention to the one who actually offers them shalom true peace Instead they continue to be controlled by their fears and anxieties People spend their lives serving various idols the most popular of which is Mammon They nurture their grudges refuse to forgive and live in the rubble of broken relationships Some of those who consider themselves Christians instead of serving as ministers of reconciliation enlist as soldiers in the culture wars and end up fighting the wrong battles with the wrong weapons Many people therefore live in a state of war No one should be surprised therefore at the sharp rise in the use of antidepressants and anti-anxiety medications So where can people find peace The Library Catalogs of the Hoover
