Search Sweet Country B. Kojo Laing, 1986 A brilliant first novel from Ghana portraying a crucial period in the nation's history a poet's story of Africa that has already provoked critical attention in Britain African pasts Tim Woods, 2018-09-30 African pasts examines African literatures in English since the end of colonialism investigating how they represent African history through the twin matrices of memory and trauma Inextricably tied up with the historical conditions of Africa's colonisation charting the emergence of its independence and scrutinising Africa's contemporary neo colonial and postcolonial states as a legacy of the colonial past African literatures are continually preoccupied with exploring modes of representation to work through their different traumatic colonial pasts Among other issues this book deals with literature in the era of apartheid the post apartheid aftermath metafictional experiments in African fiction gender representation in reaction to the trauma of colonialism and imprisonment narratives African pasts covers a wide range of African literatures and a cross section of genres fiction poetry prison narratives postcolonial theory and embraces such well known writers as Soyinka Coetzee Ngugi and Achebe and more recent writers such as Nuruddin Farah Tsitsi Dangarembga Achmat Dangor Etienne van Heerden Zakes Mda Gillian Slovo and Calixthe Beyala Beyond Empire and Nation Francis Ngaboh-Smart, 2021-11-29 The impact of nationalism on the emergence and development of African literature is now well documented Globalization or the postnational state it seems to herald the emblematic phenomenon of our era has not received much attention Using a cultural studies approach Beyond Empire and Nation is a fascinating account of the process of globalization in African Literature The book starts with an analysis of nationalist rhetoric and ideology as exemplified by works such as Things Fall Apart Thereafter it dedicates a chapter each to B. Kojo Laing's novels and Nuruddin Farah's Trilogy Maps Gifts and Secrets as articulations of a globalized postnational reality At the heart of the book is an analysis of a nuanced and complex experience of global modernity as Africans reassess the constants of nationalist discourse culture identity locality and territoriality Ngaboh Smart does not believe that the postnational phenomenon is necessarily detrimental to the national state and argues that it may well be capable of generating a new form of individual agency although he is critical of those writers who ignore the new power dynamic inherent in globalization Moving beyond the clash of cultures paradigm Ngaboh Smart's account of the renegotiation of national identity and ideology is a significant contribution to the criticism of African literature and its link to global social processes Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea, 2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in

Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors

Fiction of Imperialism Philip Darby, 1998-05-01 The Fiction of Imperialism attempts to promote dialogue between international relations and postcolonialism It addresses the value of fiction to an understanding of the imperial relationship between the West and Asia and Africa A wide range of fiction and criticism is examined as it pertains to colonialism the North South engagement and contemporary Third World politics The book begins by contrasting the treatment of cross cultural relations in political studies and literary texts It then examines the personal as a metaphor for the political in fiction depicting the imperial connection between Britain and India This is paired with an analysis of African literary texts which takes as its theme the relationship between culture and politics The concluding chapters approach literature from the outside considering its apparent silence on economics and realpolitik and assessing the utility of postcolonial reconceptualisations

Kojo Laing, Robert Browning and Affiliative Literature Joseph Hankinson, 2022-12-13 This book compares the Victorian British poet Robert Browning and the twentieth century Ghanaian poet and novelist Kojo Laing two writers whose texts frequently foreground multi scalar transregional cartographies points of connection and translation and imaginative kinships between different linguistic and cultural communities Starting from the numerous and surprising points of connection and resemblance between both authors texts this book puts pressure on critical practices that would keep writers like Laing and Browning separate positing instead the importance of paying attention to the transnational cross cultural and cross temporal imaginative relationships texts themselves generate By comparing two writers whose texts represent different points of view on a number of shared and congruent contexts this book seeks an original way of understanding the relationship between texts and post colonial contexts texts and other texts Browning s and Laing s shared tendency to foreground trans and post national cartographies of relation and difference and their similarly translational aesthetics both demand a probing of the disciplinary separation between English Literature and Comparative Literature as well as literature and comparison and a fresh awareness of the ways in which literature itself makes comparisons and affiliations It also involves a version of world literature intent on accentuating the relational worlds linguistic imaginative ethical that texts themselves generate a criticism sensitive to the ways in which writers from different times and places can still be seen to overlap

Other Globes Simon Ferdinand, Irene Villaescusa-Illán, Esther Peeren, 2019-05-13 This volume challenges dominant imaginations of globalization by highlighting alternative visions of the globe world earth or planet that abound in cultural social and political practice In the contemporary context of intensive globalization ruthless geopolitics and unabated environmental exploitation these other globes offer paths for thinking anew the relations between people politics and the planet Derived from disparate historical and cultural contexts which include the Holy Roman Empire late medieval Brabant the post colonial Philippines early twentieth century Britain contemporary Puerto Rico occupied Palestine postcolonial Africa and Chile and present day California the past and peripheral globes analyzed in this volume reveal the variety of ways in which the global has been and might be imagined As such the fourteen contributions underline that there is no neutral natural or universal way of inhabiting the global

Lasting Impressions Jesse Matz, 2017-01-31 Impressionism captured the world's imagination in the late nineteenth century and remains with us today Portraying the dynamic effects of modernity impressionist artists revolutionized the arts and the wider culture Impressionism transformed the very pattern of reality introducing new ways to look at and think about the world and our experience of it Its legacy has been felt in many major contributions to popular and high culture from cubism and early cinema to the works of Zadie Smith and W G Sebald from advertisements for Pepsi to the observations of Oliver Sacks and Malcolm Gladwell Yet impressionism's persistence has also been a problem a matter of inauthenticity superficiality and complicity in what is merely impressionistic about culture today Jesse Matz considers these two legacies the positive and the negative to explain impressionism's true contemporary significance As Lasting Impressions moves through contemporary literature painting and popular culture Matz explains how the perceptual role cultural effects and social implications of impressionism continue to generate meaning and foster new forms of creativity understanding and public engagement

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola,Jacqueline Bardolph,Denise Coussey,2022-05-20 The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985-95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest Nigeria Kenya and the Republic of South Africa although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M G Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes in particular the writers' predilection for topicality the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation Central themes also include the role of women in feeding for themselves both in rural and in urban environments A further major theme is the role of the past the Nigerian civil war the Mau Mau period in Kenya the revisiting of slavery the refurbishing of myth the questioning of historical reconstructions The preoccupation of the West East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub-Saharan anglophone Africa No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue the present survey covers a large number of titles Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy This approach well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed

Search Sweet Country Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Search Sweet Country versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Search Sweet Country books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Search Sweet Country books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Search Sweet Country books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
