In Search of a Confident Faith J. P. Moreland, Klaus Issler, 2008-07-30 Emphasizing that our trust in God will grow exponentially when we have come to understand the true nature of faith J P Moreland and Klaus Issler identify the intellectual emotional relational experiential and even theological barriers to mature faith Searching for Faith Within a Confused Society Dennis A. Anderson, 1976 The Search for Faith and Character in Our Time Jeff Caples, 2025-09-10 There are many things we seek in life some are important and most are not This book gives insight into our search for faith and the character we develop when we pursue it Different qualities of faith and character are examined in detail Current events are discussed and analyzed from the viewpoint of faith in our time The reader is asked What do you believe in and is encouraged to find out Search for Faith and Justice in the Twentieth Century Gene James, 1987 Understanding Seeking Faith: Society, history, and the political and philosophical uses of Judaism Jacob Neusner, 1988 In Search of the Republic Richard Vetterli, Gary Bryner, 1996 When In Search of the Republic was originally published in 1987 scholarly interpretations of the concept of virtue in the American founding were considered peripheral to mainstream political theory Since then the authors arguments that public virtue civic responsibility and private morality were at the heart of the Founding Fathers political thought is now accepted by a growing number of contemporary political theorists This revised edition includes a new preface that places In Search of the Republic within the context of contemporary debates over the role of virtue and religion in early American political discourse This is a superb introduction for students and scholars interested in learning about the moral political and constitutional theories of the Founding Fathers Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today s societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church s engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church s role in cultural and social change Analytical Psychology in a Changing World: The search for self, identity and community Lucy Huskinson, Murray Stein, 2014-08-13 How can we make sense of ourselves within a world of change In Analytical Psychology in a Changing World an international range of contributors examine some of the common pitfalls challenges and rewards that we encounter in our efforts to carve out identities of a personal or collective nature and question the extent to which analytical psychology as a school of thought and therapeutic approach must also adapt to meet our changing needs The contributors assess contemporary concerns about our sense of who we are and where we are going some in light of recent social and natural disasters and changes to our social climates others by revisiting existential concerns and philosophical responses to our human situation in order to assess their validity for today How we use our urban environments and its structures to make sense of our pathologies and shortcomings the relevance of images and the dynamic forms that underpin our experience of the world how analytical psychology can effectively manage issues and problems of cultural religious and existential identity these broad themes and others besides are vividly illustrated by striking case studies and unique personal insights that give real lucidity to the ideas and arguments presented Analytical Psychology in a Changing World will be essential reading for Jungian and post Jungian scholars and clinicians of depth psychology as well as sociologists philosophers and any reader with a critical interest in the important cultural ideas of our time Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license people and tips for facing liars in your life The valuable concepts are brought to life in three primary sections How society uses feel good statements The biblical foundation of the statement What should be used instead Within these 3 categories readers are empowered to understand the concepts that truly encourage others with biblical truth and compassion Each chapter ends with questions for thought and discussion making this the perfect tool for an 8 week devotional small group study or personal growth tool

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ s disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally
