Stories of Nation Christopher Hebert, Martin Griffin, 2024-01-12 Throughout American history there has been an oddly close relationship between the seductive appeals of narrative fiction and those of political rhetoric and advocacy The aim of Stories of Nation Fictions Politics and the American Experience is to explore what political narratives and the cultural poetics behind them reveal about the way our personal and intimate lives are deeply connected with the public arena and the political process The first section of the book The Politics of Fictions contains essays focused on works of fiction consciously dramatizing the political realm The second group of contributions The Fictions of Politics explores structures and motifs from the narrative arts in discourses of American political life and the interactions of public institutions and policy with forms of fictional representation from novels to popular music and TV drama The essays presented here broaden the conversation in American literary studies about what constitutes the political in literature and culture by reintroducing the dimension of institutional or representative politics Likewise Stories of Nation aims to repair the lines of communication between the idea that all fiction is political and the view that political speech is a subgenre of literature all the more in need of examination in a highly polarized society The range of perspectives in Stories of Nation will engage students of literature popular culture and politics alike MARTIN GRIFFIN is an associate professor in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee He is the author of Ashes of the Mind War and Memory in Northern Literature 1865 1900 2009 and co author with Constance DeVereaux of Narrative Identity and the Map of Cultural Policy Once Upon a Time in a Globalized World 2013 CHRISTOPHER HEBERT is an assistant professor in the Department of English at the University of Tennessee and is former senior acquisitions editor at the University of Michigan Press He is the author of the novels Angels of Detroit 2016 and The Boiling Season 2012 Public Memory and the Television Series Outlander Valerie Lynn Schrader, 2020-12-30 Using rhetorical criticism as a research method Public Memory and the Television Series Outlander examines how public memory is created in the first four seasons of the popular television show Outlander In this book Valerie Lynn Schrader discusses the connections between documented history and the series noting where Outlander's depiction of events aligns with documented history and where it does not as well as how public memory is created through the use of music language directorial and performance choices and mise en scene elements like filming location props and costumes Schrader also explores the impact that Outlander has had on Scottish tourism known as the Outlander effect and reflects on whether other filming locations or depicted locations may experience a similar effect as Outlander's settings move from Scotland to other areas of the world Furthermore Schrader suggests that the creation of public memory through the television series encourages audiences to learn about history and reflect on current issues that are brought to light through that public memory

The Assassin's Accomplice Kate Clifford Larson, 2011-02-22 In The Assassin's Accomplice historian Kate Clifford Larson tells the gripping story of Mary Surratt a little known participant in the plot to kill Abraham Lincoln and the first woman ever to be executed by the federal government of the United States Surratt a Confederate sympathizer ran the boarding house in Washington where the conspirators including her rebel son John Surratt met to plan the assassination When a military tribunal convicted her for her crimes and sentenced her to death five of the nine commissioners petitioned President Andrew Johnson to show mercy on Surratt because of her sex and age Unmoved Johnson refused Surratt he said kept the nest that hatched the egg Set against the backdrop of the Civil War The Assassin's Accomplice tells the intricate story of the Lincoln conspiracy through the eyes of its only female participant Based on long lost interviews confessions and court testimony the text explores how Mary's actions defied nineteenth century norms of femininity piety and motherhood leaving her vulnerable to deadly punishment historically reserved for men A riveting narrative account of sex espionage and murder cloaked in the enchantments of Southern womanhood The Assassin's Accomplice offers a fresh perspective on America's most famous murder

The Politics of Serial Television Fiction Sebastian Naumann, 2025-02-08 Fictional TV politics played a pivotal role in the popular imaginaries of the 2010s across cultures Examining this curious phenomenon Sebastian Naumann provides a wide ranging analysis of the rapidly evolving landscape of contemporary polit series Proposing a novel structural model of serial television he offers an innovative methodological framework for comparative textual analysis that integrates sociocultural economic sociotechnical narratological and aesthetic perspectives This study furthermore explores how the changing affordances of nonlinear television impact serial storytelling and identifies key narrative trends and recurring themes in contemporary TV polit fiction
