Seasons End A Novel:

Season's End Tom Grimes, 1996-01-01 Mike Williams tempts fate when he appears on the cover of Sports Illustrated at age twenty one He becomes a major league batting champion and a national icon as he travels from innocence to disillusionment Through the prism of baseball Season's End examines the rich dark themes of young love fathers and sons rags to riches wealth and the cult of celebrity in the media age In the Fog of the Seasons' End Alex La Guma, 2012-09-21 La Guma's powerful firsthand account depicts the dedicated South African people who risked their lives in the underground movement against apartheid The main characters Beukes and Elias are among others determined to undermine apartheid's blatant oppression and demeaning tactics The authors knack for rich descriptions and weaving the past with the present transports readers to the grind of working in an underground political organization and the challenges of confronting hardships change and injustice on a daily basis Season's End Will North, 2013-09-03 Building upon the success of his critically acclaimed bestseller The Long Walk Home Will North returns with a much anticipated new title Season's End Colin Ryan on his way to work finds the woman whom he has loved for thirty years his best friend's wife Pete lying motionless on a dangerous bend in the road unconscious and near death from alcohol poisoning Believing she's tried to kill herself Colin does what he's always done since the beginning of their turbulent friendship he nurtures and comforts her this time with an eye toward solving the mystery that's left her half dead on the foggy roadside In signature North style at once lyrical and gripping Season's End gathers a brilliant cast of characters richly rendered and beautifully grounded within the sumptuous backdrop of Washington State's Puget Sound This deftly written and at times deeply romantic and suspenseful novel will surely satisfy Will North fans and more than likely create legions more A Passion to Liberate Fritz Pointer, 2001 A literary biography of one of South Africa's most extraordinary and eminent men of letters Justine Alexander La Guma better known as Alex La Guma Concerned with the writing life of one of South Africa's most prolific eloquent and courageous authors it covers his contribution in the fight to overturn apartheid as well as his literary work and journalism The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam, Ruth Rowe, 2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures The South African Novel in English Kenneth Parker, 1978-06-17 In the Name of the Mother Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 2013 Alongside the impact of his early novels and plays and his more recent memoirs these essays give new insights into Ngugi's and other writers' responses to colonialism there is new material here for students of literature politics and culture. Renowned worldwide as novelist and dramatist, Ngugi wa Thiong'o's contributions to the body of critical writing on African literature politics and society have been highly significant. His best known critical work is Decolonising the Mind which since publication in 1986 has profoundly influenced other writers, critics, scholars and students. These latest essays reflect Ngugi's continuing interests and enthusiasms. His choice of writers is original. He makes us look again at their novels to address his lifelong concerns with the ways to independence, the meanings of colonialism and the takeover by neo colonialism and the functions of literature in political as well as literary terms. They will appeal not only to his international band of supporters. They will also introduce his views to young people discovering African and Caribbean literature. Ngugi wa Thiong'o is Distinguished Professor of English and Comparative Literature at the University of California Irvine. Ngugi is renowned for his essays including the seminal Decolonising the Mind (1986), his plays which led to his detention in Kenya, his novels, the most recent works being The Wizard of the Crow (2007) translated into English from Gikuyu and his memoirs Dreams in a Time of War and In the House of the Interpreter (East Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda and Rwanda). The Baseball Novel Noel Schraufnagel, 2008-08-29. This annotated bibliography covers approximately 400 novels published from 1838 through 2007. A substantial introduction to the history and development of the genre precedes the chronologically arranged entries which provide bibliographic details and extensive annotations on plot, themes and compositional strengths and weaknesses. Mainstream novels by writers such as Hemingway, Wolfe, Roth and DeLillo are included. Appendices provide historical overviews for the primary baseball subgenres including mystery, fantasy and science fiction; lists for novels that foreground issues of race or ethnicity or both as in Winegardner's Vera Cruz Blues, Gilbert's A League of Their Own and class Hay's The Dixie Association; and the author's rankings of great baseball novels overall and by subgenre.

Short, direct and addictive: the complete guide to vertical micro-novels Reginaldo Osnildo. We live in an age of fragmented attention. We scroll through screens at high speed searching for content that makes us stop and feel. It's in this context that one of the most addictive formats of the new digital narrative emerges: the vertical microsoap opera. In short, just a few seconds, videos with condensed plots and intense emotions. This new storytelling model has been garnering millions of views on social media. But what makes a microsoap opera so captivating? How do you build characters, plots, twists and climaxes in such a short amount of time? This book Short, Direct and Addictive: The Complete Guide to Vertical Micronovelas was created for those who want to master this language. Whether you're a screenwriter, content creator, director, actor or simply curious about new forms of storytelling, here you'll find a clear and comprehensive map to immerse yourself in this universe. Structured in six parts, this guide begins with the fundamentals of the format, introducing the roots and dynamics that make vertical microsoap operas such an engaging powerhouse. Then we dive into season planning, teaching you how to bring original ideas to life, build memorable characters and design narrative arcs that fit seamlessly within the constraints of time and screen We move on to practical scriptwriting where you ll learn how to condense emotion humor suspense and romance in seconds Next we explore the secrets of production with accessible resources demonstrating that you can create high impact videos using only a smartphone creativity and aesthetic sensitivity We also offer strategies for promotion engagement and monetization so your work not only reaches more people but also generates revenue Finally we present case studies narrative styles and reflections on the future of this format that is shaping a new generation of digital playwrights This is not a theoretical book It s practical straightforward and meant to be consulted crossed out and marked Here each chapter is a tool and each tool a possibility You don t need big productions or million dollar budgets What you need is a good idea a camera which you probably already have and this book Let s create short direct and addictive stories Let s write soap operas that fit in the palm of your hand and that stay with viewers Welcome to the future of storytelling Yours sincerely Reginaldo Osnildo

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others

Silence and Silencing in Selected African Novels Oumar Chérif Diop, 2025-09-04 Through literary analysis this book examines how African writers address silence and oppression in novels and poetry Silence and Silencing in Selected African Novels Power Dynamics and Transformative Voices by Oumar Chérif Diop explores representations of rhetorical sociocultural and gendered silence and silencing within selected African literature He examines how African writers deconstruct normative discourses and use aesthetic forms and narrative techniques to confront silencing systems Within these literary works characters express their thoughts emotions fears anxieties and protest through their silence Through textual analysis Diop explores the spaces where silence and silencing occur and how they highlight power dynamics and enforce oppressive structures These texts also reveal the transformative potential of silence to illustrate the resilience of marginalized characters and their inspiring struggle against the censoring mechanisms of repressive institutions Breaking the silence becomes an act of reclaiming agency and challenging oppressive forces Diop shows how the importance of voice in the struggle for justice and the potential for individual actions inspires broader movements for change Superman , States of Emergency Stephen Morton,2013-01-01 States of Emergency examines how violent anticolonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques employed by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in both literary and legal narratives Through a series of case studies Stephen Morton considers how colonial states of emergency have been defined and represented in the contexts of Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya and Israel Palestine concluding with a compelling assessment of the continuities between colonial states of emergency and the war on terror in Iraq Afghanistan and Pakistan
