Year of Ordinary Days Susan Wittig Albert, 2010-06-04 From Eudora Welty's memoir of childhood to May Sarton's reflections on her seventieth year, writers' journals offer an irresistible opportunity to join a creative thinker in musing on the events, whether in daily life or on a global scale, that shape our lives. In An Extraordinary Year of Ordinary Days, best-selling mystery novelist Susan Wittig Albert invites us to revisit one of the most tumultuous years in recent memory, 2008, through the lens of 365 ordinary days in which her reading, writing, and thinking about issues in the wider world, from wars and economic recession to climate change, caused her to reconsider and reshape daily practices in her personal life. Albert's journal provides an engaging account of how the business of being a successful working writer blends with her rural life in the Texas Hill Country and the Sangre de Cristo Mountains of New Mexico. As her eclectic daily reading ranges across topics from economics, food production, and oil and energy policy to poetry, place, and the writing life, Albert becomes increasingly concerned about the natural world and the threats facing it, especially climate change and resource depletion. Asking herself, "What does it mean? And what ought I do about it?" she determines practical steps to take, such as growing more food in her garden, and also helps us, as readers, make sense of these issues and consider what our own responses might be. Barren,

Wild, and Worthless Susan J. Tweit, 2022-05-24 Appearing barren and most definitely wild, the Chihuahuan Desert of northern Mexico and the southwestern United States may look worthless to some, but for Susan Tweit, it is an inspiration. In this collection of seven elegant personal essays, she explores undiscovered facets of this seemingly hostile environment. With eloquence, passion, and insight, she describes and reflects on the relationship between the land, history, and people, and makes this underappreciated region less barren for those who would share her journeys. Country Living: Gardener a Blessing of Toads Sharon Lovejoy, 2004 Through this collection of delightful essays and beautiful illustrations, Lovejoy, who produces the award-winning "Heart's Ease" column for the magazine, shares with her readers the boundless joys of a country garden.

A Blessing of Toads Sharon Lovejoy, 2014-12-10 Through this collection of delightful essays and beautiful illustrations, long-time contributor to Country Living, Sharon Lovejoy shares the boundless joys of a country garden. Lovejoy has chosen to focus on the natural world to be found just outside the door, including hummingbirds, caterpillars, and dragonflies, but her informative and witty prose also covers traditional plant care. The very titles of her sketches convey pleasure in the vibrant country landscape and the life that teems within it: "The Bumble Bee Rumba," "Faeries in the Fuschias," "sphinx moths," "Holiday Feasts for the Birds and the Beasts," and "Conversations with Sunflowers." This compilation truly is to borrow another of her titles, "Something to Crow About." Xerophilia Tom Lynch, 2008 Examines works by such writers as Leslie Marmon Silko, Terry Tempest Williams, Edward Abbey, and others in the first systematically ecocritical study of multicultural literature of the American Southwest. Memories of the months, the notebook of a field-naturalist and antiquary Sir Herbert Maxwell, 1897
