Air Service When war broke out a pre war explorer and army officer Ralph Bagnold convinced Middle East Command of the need for a reconnaissance force to penetrate into Italian held desert Bagnold tested four types of vehicles over rocks and through soft sand to find the best one for his new unit He selected the Chevrolet WB 30 CWT as the signature vehicle of the Long Range Desert Group because it is fast simple and easy to handle With left hand steering horizontal grill and round fenders on the rear wheels these trucks proved themselves popular and effective The durability of the Chevrolets was demonstrated in January 1941 with an audacious raid on the Italian fort air strip at Murzuk hundreds of miles behind enemy lines This book explains the detail of all the vehicles of the LRDG as well as their modifications driving techniques and special kit for surviving behind enemy lines in one of the most hostile environments on earth Long Range Desert Group

The Long Range Desert Group in World War II Gavin Mortimer,2017-04-20 A major illustrated history of the Long Range Desert Group from the foremost expert on British wartime special forces Formed in June 1940 for the purpose of gathering intelligence behind enemy lines the Long Range Desert Group LRDG played a secretive but vital role in North Africa during World War II Highly trained in mechanized reconnaissance and specializing in desert operations the unit provided support to the Special Air Service SAS in missions across the vast and treacherous terrain of the Western Desert In this highly illustrated history of the LRDG Gavin Mortimer reveals the origins and dramatic operations of Britain s first ever special forces unit Fighting with the Long Range Desert Group Brendan O'Carroll,2022-06-30 Formed in 1940 the Long Range Desert Group was the first Allied Special Forces unit established to operate behind German and Italian lines in North Africa Its officers and men were volunteers recruited from British and Commonwealth units Merlyn Craw was serving with the 2nd New Zealand Expeditionary Force when he joined the LRDG in 1941 He took part in numerous missions in the desert The navigational driving and fighting skills of the LRDG were legendary and they were frequently responsible for transporting Stirling's SAS detachments on raids Merlyn's luck ran out when he was captured on the Barce raid in September 1942 but he escaped twice the second time making it back to Allied lines Sent home on leave he returned to Italy with the New Zealand Army After a disagreement he went AWOL and rejoined the LRDG with no questions asked serving until the end of the war Drawing on interviews with Merlyn and other former LRDG veterans the author has created a vivid picture of this exceptional and highly decorated fighting man Readers cannot fail to be impressed by the courage and ruthless determination of Merlyn Craw MM and his comrades R Patrol Long Range Desert Group Brendan

A history of the British Army unit's deployment to and defense of a group of islands between Greece and Turkey during World War II. Shortly after the invasion of Sicily in order to distract German attention from the Italian campaign Churchill ordered the occupation of the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean. The Long Range Desert Group retraining in Lebanon were now part of Raiding Forces Middle East along with the Special Boat Service and No 30 Commando. In support of 3 000 regulars in 234 Brigade the LRDG landed covertly on Leros establishing observation posts reporting movement of enemy shipping and aircraft. In October the LRDG were ordered to assault the island of Levitha losing forty highly skilled men killed or captured. The Germans invaded Leros with overwhelming force on 12 November 1943 five days later the battle was over. While many British troops were captured most of the LRDG and SBS escaped. Their individual stories make for enthralling reading. A measure of the intensity of the fighting is the fact that the LRDG lost more men in three months in the Aegean than in three years in the desert operating behind enemy lines. The author an acknowledged expert on the LRDG uses official sources both British and German and individual accounts to piece together the full story of this dramatic costly but little known campaign. It is a valuable addition to the history of special forces in the Second World War. Praise for The Long Range Desert Group in the Aegean. O Carroll provides an interesting and informative read about a little known action by a World War II era special operations unit and an important part of SOF history. SOF News Long Range Desert Group W. B. Kennedy Shaw, 2015-11-30. A moving exciting and authentic chronicle of the British Army's legendary recon and raiding unit in the desert of North Africa during WWII. The Observer. During its two and a half years fighting in North Africa from 1940 to 1943 the Long Range Desert Group became the acknowledged master of the desert. This small highly mobile force made a name for itself through daring exploits and vital reconnaissance far behind enemy lines. Emerging from the depths of the desert the LRDG would raid airfields or attack Axis lines of communication along the Mediterranean coast then vanish only to reappear hundreds of miles away. First published in 1945 Long Range Desert Group is a classic of military nonfiction. With its brilliant description of the desert's harsh beauty and its exciting chronicle of LRDG activities it has lost none of its gripping visceral power. A remarkable record told simply unpretentiously and with engaging humor. The Manchester Guardian The Long Range Desert Group in Action 1940-1943 Brendan O'Carroll, 2020-12-30. This first pictorial history of the LRDG covers all aspects of its work and the vehicles and weapons they used in their devastating raids. Beating Tsundoku. The Long Range Desert Group has a strong claim to the first Special Forces unit in the British Army. This superb illustrated history follows the LRDG from its July 1940 formation as the Long Range Patrol in North Africa tasked with intelligence gathering mapping and reconnaissance deep behind enemy lines. Manned initially by New Zealanders in 1940 the unit became the LRDG with members drawn from British Guards and Yeomanry regiments and Rhodesians. So successful were the LRDG patrols that when the Special Air Service was formed it often relied on their navigational and tactical skills to achieve their missions. After victory in North Africa the LRDG relocated to Lebanon before being sent on the ill fated mission to the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean Serving independently when the Germans overwhelmed and captured the British garrisons many LRDG personnel escaped using their well honed skills Many images in this the first pictorial history of the LRDG were taken unofficially by serving members The result is a superb record of the LRDG s achievements the personalities their weapons and vehicles which will delight laymen and specialists alike Well written The photographs brought together here are a stunning selection despite the various quality as it shows the men and machines living the war they fought in Armorama A must read page turner Richard Gough military author and historian Informative and full of exciting detailed accounts of operations that occurred throughout the LRDG s reign of terror on the Axis forces during the war AMPS The Long Range Desert Group, 1940-1945 David Lloyd Owen, John Keegan, 2001 This splendid record takes the reader behind enemy lines not only in North Africa but in Italy the Aegean and the Balkans The Author who commanded the LRDG paints a vivid picture of the unit s colourful characters for example Ralph Bagnold who put to good use the knowledge he gained from his pre war desert travels The LRDG was truly international with New Zealanders and Rhodesians playing key roles This classic book won acclaim from the critics on its first publication by virtue of the author s unique knowledge experience and narrative skills The Long Range Desert Group 1940-1945 Robin Jenner, 1999-07-01 Formed on 3 July 1940 the Long Range Desert Group was the brilliant product of the vision of Major Ralph Bagnold of the Royal Corps of Signals As a model for what is now commonly know as a Long Range Reconnaissance Patrol unit the Group can have few equals Long Range Desert Group Patrolman Tim Moreman, 2010-07-20 Osprey s study of patrolmen of the Long Range Desert Group of World War II 1939 1945 Nicknamed the Libyan Desert Taxi Service by the SAS the Long Range Desert Group was tasked with strategic reconnaissance and raiding operations deep inside the enemy held deserts of North Africa Armed with light weapons only and equipped with specially converted light cars and trucks capable of withstanding the harsh conditions the LRDG quickly proved it could operate in parts of the desert which other troops including the enemy found impassable This new Warrior title examines the soldiers of the LRDG from the group s formation through training to combat in vast lonely and deadly deserts of North Africa Lrdg tracks - June 2024 Kuno Gross, Patrick Adaimi, Sam Watson, Charlie Down, Brendan O'Carroll, Alan F.
