national player in prize fighting s early days throughout the mid 1800s many parochial scores and wagers were settled by the use of fists By the end of the century boxing with gloves had become the norm and Sheffield had a valid claim to be the chief provincial focus of this new passion largely due to the exploits of George Corfield Sheffield s first boxer of national repute Corfield s deeds were later surpassed by three British champions Gus Platts Johnny Cuthbert and Henry Hall Concluding with the dual themes of the decline of boxing in Sheffield and the city s changing social profile from the 1950s onwards the volume ends with a meditation on the arrival of new migrants to the city and the processes that aided or frustrated their integration into UK life and sport
