Gothic Documents E. J. Clery, Robert Miles, 2017-06-01 How is it that the age of Enlightenment gave rise to the genre of the literary ghost story What did the term Gothic mean when Horace Walpole used it in the subtitle of his experimental novel The Castle of Otranto How did a type of writing which broke Based on intensive research it demonstrates the importance of a historical understanding of the genre and will be influential in the development of Gothic studies It is prestigious and timely Gothic is a highly active research area and has a growing presence in the university syllabus Clery and Miles are well respected and much cited critics who have already published widely in this field This is a unique anthology filling an important gap in the market an indispensable resource for students teachers and scholars Senate documents, 1888 House documents, 1888 Calendar of State Papers Great Britain. Public Record Office, 1908 Transactions of the Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archeological Society Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian and Archaeological Society, 1916 List of members included in each volume except v 1 The Tastemakers Diana Davis, 2020-07-07 An examination of the development role and influence of the British decorative art dealers who invented an Anglo Gallic style for elite interiors In this volume Diana Davis demonstrates how London dealers invented a new and visually splendid decorative style that combined the contrasting tastes of two nations Departing from the conventional narrative that depicts dealers as purveyors of antiquarianism Davis repositions them as innovators who were key to transforming old art objects from ancien régime France into cherished antiques and equally as creators of new and modified French inspired furniture bronze work and porcelain The resulting old new and reconfigured objects merged aristocratic French eighteenth century taste with nineteenth century British preference and they were prized by collectors who displayed them side by side in palatial interiors of the period The Tastemakers analyzes dealer made furnishings from the nineteenth century patron's perspective and in the context of the interiors for which they were created contending that early dealers deliberately formulated a new aesthetic with its own objects language and value Davis examines a wide variety of documents to piece together the shadowy world of these dealers who emerge center stage as traders makers and tastemakers Memory and the Archival Turn in Caribbean Literature and Culture Marta Fernández Campa, 2023-04-15 This book discusses an archival turn in the work of contemporary Caribbean writers and visual artists across linguistic locations and whose work engages critically with various historical narratives and colonial and postcolonial records This refiguration opens a critical space and retells stories and histories previously occluded in by those records and in spaces of the public sphere Through poetics and aesthetics of fragmentation largely influenced by music and popular culture their work encourages contrapuntal ways of re thinking histories ways that interrogate the influence of colonial narratives in processes of silencing but also centre the knowledge found in oral histories and other forms of artistic archives outside official repositories Discussing literature and selected artwork by artists from Britain Cuba the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico and Trinidad and Tobago Memory and the Archival Turn in Caribbean Literature and Culture demonstrates the historiographical significance of artistic and cultural production
