Cristina Caimotto, 2020-05-07 This book employs a Critical Discourse Studies CDS framework to examine cycling mobility marking a new turn in ecolinguistic discourse analysis The author focuses specifically on environment related arguments concerning the promotion of higher levels of cycling mainly as a means of transport and investigates the US vs THEM narratives present in many discourses about road users Analysing newspaper articles institutional documents and spoken interviews the author searches for a positive new discourse that would inspire and encourage cycling as a habitual means of transport rather than simply exposing ecologically destructive discourse The book will be of interest to scholars of discourse and ecolinguistics as well as contributing to the lively debate about how to increase cycling in fields such as sustainability sociology transport planning and management
