Ba, 2009-03-26 This book seeks to explain two core paradoxes associated with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN How have diverse states hung together and stabilized relations in the face of competing interests divergent preferences and arguably weak cooperation How has a group of lesser self identified Southeast Asian powers gone beyond its original regional purview to shape the form and content of Asian Pacific and East Asian regionalisms According to Alice Ba the answers lie in ASEAN s founding arguments arguments that were premised on an assumed regional disunity She demonstrates how these arguments draw critical causal connections that make Southeast Asian regionalism a necessary response to problems give rise to its defining informality and consensus seeking process and also constrain ASEAN s regionalism Tracing debates about ASEAN s intra and extra regional relations over four decades she argues for a process driven view of cooperation sheds light on intervening processes of argument and debate and highlights interacting material ideational and social forces in the construction of regions and regionalisms
