Carolina Planters on the Alabama Frontier The Spencer Robeson McKenzie Family collects the papers of Elihu Spencer a fourth generation New Englander and his family and Southern descendants to form a history of the American nation from the point of view of planters and those they held in slavery The documents in this volume are accounts of a privileged world that was afflicted by constant loss and despair The families lived as isolated landed gentry in a society where medical treatment had hardly evolved since the Middle Ages The papers together form a dramatic narrative of early Americans from the mid eighteenth century to the harsh years after the Civil War They created their new society with courage and imagination and tenacity while never recognizing their own moral blind spot regarding the holding of human beings in slavery It brought about the collapse of their world poignantly expressed in these letters
