the Boudoir in a series of comparative essays that not only examine Sade's influence in French European and American thought but also critique it in the context of some of modern philosophy's most relevant subjects: ecology, nature, universalism, and the links between ethics and aesthetics. Self-Made Tara Isabella Burton, 2023-06-27 An exploration into the curation of the self in Western civilization from Da Vinci to Kim Kardashian. In a technologically saturated era where nearly everything can be effortlessly and digitally reproduced, we're all hungry to carve out our own unique personalities, our own bespoke personae to stand out and be seen. As the forces of social media and capitalism collide and individualism becomes more important than ever across a wide array of industries branding ourselves or actively defining our selves for others has become the norm. Yet this phenomenon is not new. In Self-Made, Tara Isabella Burton shows us how we arrived at this moment of fervent personal branding. As attitudes towards religion, politics, and society evolved, our sense of self did as well, moving from a collective to individual mindset. Through a series of chronological biographical essays on famous and infamous self-creators in the modern Western world from the Renaissance to the Enlightenment to modern capitalism and finally to our present moment of mass media, Burton examines the theories and forces behind our never-ending need to curate ourselves. Through a vivid cast of characters and an engaging mix of cultural and historical commentary, we learn how the personal brand has come to be.
