Marrano Poets Of The Seventeenth Century An Anthology:

Marrano Poets of the Seventeenth Century Timothy Oelman, 1982-09-01 The story of the Marranos the Jewish converts to Christianity in Spain and Portugal has long been a source of fascination for Jews interested in their heritage and for all those concerned with the struggle for freedom of conscience against authoritarianism In this volume are presented the selected works of three Marrano poets together with translations into English and explanatory notes Each of the three poets is introduced with a biography and brief critical assessment In a general introduction the editor explains the historical and literary background of their works and examines the inter relationship between the Jewish and Christian cultural elements Drawing on a wide range of published and manuscript sources he gives a balanced picture of the Marranos and describes the process of Jewish re education they had to undergo in order to reach their goal of integration with authentic Judaism in the Jewish communities outside the Iberian peninsula The three poets Jo o Pinto Delgado Antonio Enr quez G mez and Miguel de Barrios are presented against this background as exemplifying three different paths to Judaism which nonetheless have in common the dramatic experience of life under the Inquisition and the halfway house of the Marrano communities Symbols of exile and insecurity abound Each poet shares a sense of guilt over his past observance of Christianity and endeavours to reach out towards the authentic sources of the Jewish tradition such as the Talmud and the rabbinic commentaries to invest his writings with a greater cultural depth The poems in this volume have been selected with the aim of giving a representative view of each individual poet s experience and particular literary talents Through the translations and notes the general reader is provided with insight into their significance and purpose The specialist reader too will gain from finding the writings of three little known poets of similar background brought together for the first time and set in context

Marrano Poets of the Seventeenth Century Timothy Oelman, 2020 The story of the Marranos the Jewish converts to Christianity in Spain and Portugal has long been a source of fascination for Jews interested in their heritage and for all those concerned with the struggle for freedom of conscience against authoritarianism This book presents selected works of three Marrano poets together with translations into English and explanatory notes Each of the poets is introduced with a biography and brief critical assessment The general introduction provides the historical and literary background of their works and examines the inter relationship between the Jewish and Christian cultural elements Marrano Poets of the Seventeenth Century Timothy Oelman, 1982 Hebrews of the Portuguese Nation Miriam Bodian, 1997 An engaging introduction to the tortuous plight faced by exiled conversos in Amsterdam and their methods of response Choicet In this skillful and well argued book Miriam Bodian explores the communal history of the Portuguese Jews who settled in Amsterdam in the seventeenth century Sixteenth Century Journa Drawing on family and communal records diaries memoirs and literary works among other sources Miriam Bodian tells the moving story of how Portuguese new Christian immigrants in 17th century Amsterdam fashioned a close and cohesive community that recreated a Jewish religious identity while retaining its Iberian heritage

Reluctant Cosmopolitans Daniel M. Swetschinski, 2000-06-01 Winner of the 2000 National Jewish Book Award for Sephardic Studies Focusing on the social dimension of Amsterdam's Portuguese Jewish economic and religious life Swetschinski paints a lively and unconventional picture of the dynamics of a remarkable Jewish community the first traditional Jewish society to engage creatively with the non Jewish secular world in relative harmony A broad authentic and original vision of the transition from medieval to modern Jewish history Isaac Aboab da Fonseca Moises Orfali, 2021-04-01 From 1642 to 1654 Isaac Aboab da Fonseca was the hakham Torah scholar and spiritual leader of the oldest Jewish community in the New World This monograph on Isaac Aboab da Fonseca and his intellectual and spiritual contributions includes discussion of his commentary on the Pentateuch entitled Parafrasis Comentada sobre el Pentateuco The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Early Modern Spanish Literature and Culture Rodrigo Cacho Casal, Caroline Egan, 2022-05-01 The Routledge Hispanic Studies Companion to Early Modern Spanish Literature and Culture introduces the intellectual and artistic breadth of early modern Spain from a range of disciplinary and critical perspectives Spanning the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries a period traditionally known as the Golden Age the volume examines topics including political and scientific culture literary and artistic innovations and religious and social identities and institutions in transformation The 36 chapters of the volume include both expert overviews of key topics and figures from the period as well as new approaches to understudied questions and materials This invaluable resource will be of interest to advanced students and scholars in Hispanic studies as well as Renaissance and early modern studies more generally Homesickness around the Mediterranean, 1492-1923 José Alberto Rodrigues da Silva Tavim, João Teles e Cunha, 2025-03-31 This volume analyzes how people of diverse cultural and religious backgrounds living around the Middle Sea perceived felt and described homesickness using a multidisciplinary approach which brings new perspectives to known phenomena and their evolving meanings The sixteen chapters in this book span the fields of history literary and cultural studies and musicology to explore and revisit old and new subjects including diasporas renegades expatriates travelogues testaments inquisitorial processes songbooks movies and photos Together they provide a comprehensive picture of homesickness across states cultures religions and people furthering understanding of how individuals communities and nations created and expressed images ideas and emotions on this subject Though centered around the Mediterranean this volume also studies the impact of homesickness in a larger geography touched by the Iberian empires This important contribution to the history of emotions offers studies on subjects seldom available in the English speaking world and will appeal to undergraduates postgraduates scholars and non specialists alike The Schocken Book of Modern Sephardic Literature Ilan Stavans, 2010-02-10 The expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 gave rise to a series of rich diverse diasporas that were interconnected through a common vision and joie de vivre The exodus took these Sephardim to other European countries to North Africa Asia Minor and South America and eventually to the American colonies In each community new literary and artistic forms grew out of the melding of their Judeo Spanish legacy with the cultures of their host countries and that process has continued to the present day This multilingual tradition brought with it both opportunities and challenges that will resonate within any contemporary culture the status of minorities within the larger society the tension between a civil democratic tradition and the anti-Semitism ready to undermine it and the opposing forces of religion and secularism Ilan Stavans has been described by The Washington Post as Latin America's liveliest and boldest critic and most innovative cultural enthusiast And the Forward calls him a maverick intellectual whose canonical work has already produced a whole array of marvels that are redefining Jewishness This new anthology contains fiction memoirs essays and poetry from twenty eight writers who span more than 150 years Included are Emma Lazarus's legendary poem The New Colossus inscribed on the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty the hypnotizing prose of Greece born Switzerland based Albert Cohen Nobel Prize winner Elias Canetti's ruminations on Europe before World War II Albert Memmi's identity quest as an Arab Jew in France Primo Levi's testimony on the Holocaust and A B Yehoshua's epic stories set in Israel today When read together these explorations offer an astonishingly incisive collective portrait of the other Jews Sephardim who long for la Espa a perdida their lost ancestral home even as they create a vibrant multifaceted literary tradition in exile

Parallel Histories James S. Amelang, 2013-12-09 The distinct religious culture of early modern Spain characterized by religious unity at a time when fierce civil wars between Catholics and Protestants fractured northern Europe is further understood through examining the expulsion of the Jews and suspected Muslims While these two groups had previously lived peaceably if sometimes uneasily with their Christian neighbors throughout much of the medieval era the expulsions brought a new intensity to Spanish Christian perceptions of both the moriscos converts from Islam and the judeoconversos converts from Judaism In Parallel Histories James S Amelang reconstructs the compelling struggle of converts to coexist with a Christian majority that suspected them of secretly adhering to their ancestral faiths and destroying national religious unity in the process Discussing first Muslims and then Jews in turn Amelang explores not only the expulsions themselves but also religious beliefs and practices social and professional characteristics the construction of collective and individual identities cultural creativity and finally the difficulties of maintaining orthodox rites and tenets under conditions of persecution Despite the oppression these two groups experienced the descendants of the judeoconversos would ultimately be assimilated into the mainstream unlike their morisco counterparts who were exiled in 1609 Amelang masterfully presents a complex narrative that not only gives voice to religious minorities in early modern Spain but also focuses on one of the greatest divergences in the history of European Christianity
