Saving God's Face Jackson Wu, 2013-04 Years ago the author had a startling realization Theologians and pastors have long taught on the glory of God and its central importance in the Bible However because he was living in East Asia it also dawned on the author that this sort of talk about God's glory praising Him and magnifying His name was simply another way of talking about honor and shame When the author looked at most theology and ministry related books he found that honor and shame seemed to be treated differently Anthropologists talked about honor shame but theologians largely focused more on legal metaphors The author could see both themes in Scripture but couldn't find help as to how to bring them together This study was developed in order to address this gap and bring those themes together Sign up for the WCIU Press newsletter to be notified about new books from this author and more <http://eepurl.com/rB15L>

Chinese Male Homosexualities Travis Kong, 2010-07-13 This book presents a groundbreaking exploration of masculinities and homosexualities amongst Chinese gay men It provides a sociological account of masculinity desire sexuality identity and citizenship in contemporary Chinese societies and within the constellation of global culture Kong reports the results of an extensive ethnographic study of contemporary Chinese gay men in a wide range of different locations including mainland China Hong Kong and the Chinese overseas community in London showing how Chinese gay men live their everyday lives Relating Chinese male homosexuality to the extensive social and cultural theories on gender sexuality and the body postcolonialism and globalisation the book examines the idea of queer space and numerous queer flows of capital bodies ideas images and commodities around the world The book concludes that different gay male identities such as the conspicuously consuming memba in Hong Kong the urban tongzhi the money boy in China and the feminised golden boy in London emerge in different locations and are all caught up in the transnational flow of queer cultures which are at once local and global
