Marriage of Minds Terence Allan Crowley, Terry Crowley, 2003-01-01 Oscar Skelton 1878 1941 was a prominent early twentieth century scholar who became a civil servant and political advisor to prime ministers Mackenzie King and R B Bennett He wrote a number of important books and one Socialism A Critical Analysis was highly praised by Vladimir Lenin His wife Isabel Skelton 1877 1956 wrote extensively about literature and history she was the first historian to treat women from the country's past individually in their own right rather than as a generalized category Both husband and wife promoted the idea that Canada was an independent nation that no longer needed Britain's tutelage Terry Crowley has written a unique double biography that examines the lives of Isabel and Oscar their works and their careers He shows how both individuals in their own way influenced the development of Canada as a nation state Crowley questions why when both Isabel and Oscar wrote influential works Oscar's career blossomed while Isabel remains virtually unrecognized He concludes that despite Isabel's literary accomplishments her life remained enmeshed in domestic and family roles while Oscar's rise to prominence was facilitated by male scholarly and publishing networks as well as the support that women provided to men's careers This book traces the lives of two people who rejected British colonialism and hailed a new nation on the world's stage examining the intersections of gender nationality and literary expression at a significant juncture in Canada's history Seeking the

Fabled City Allan Levine, 2018-10-30 In this definitive and meticulously researched account of the Jewish experience in Canada award winning and critically acclaimed author Allan Levine documents a story that is rich accessible often surprising and epic in its scope Relying on an abundance of primary sources and first hand documentation and interviews Seeking the Fabled City chronicles the successes and failures the obstacles overcome and those not conquered of a historic journey and the people who travelled it Seeking the Fabled City is a story that unfolds over 250 years from the decade after the conquest of New France in 1759 when small numbers of Sephardic Jews of Spanish and Portuguese descent arrived in British North America through the great wave of Russian and Eastern European Jewish immigration at the turn of the twentieth century to the present in which Canada's large Jewish community no longer hindered by the anti-Semitism of the past is free to flourish This is a chronicle of a people that takes place at hundreds of locales across the country mainly in the large urban centres of Montreal Toronto Vancouver and Winnipeg but also in west coast and maritime villages and tiny prairie towns in a riveting drama with a cast of thousands Relying on an abundance of primary sources and first hand documentation and interviews Seeking the Fabled City chronicles the successes and failures the obstacles overcome and those not conquered of a historic journey and the people who travelled it Purchasing Power Donica Belisle, 2020-04-02 Exploring the roots of Canadian consumer culture between the 1890s and the Second World War Purchasing Power uncovers the meanings that Canadians have attached to consumer goods Offering a new perspective on the temperance conservation home economics feminist and co-operative movements of this period this book brings women's consumer interests to the fore Due to their exclusion from formal politics and most paid employment many Canadian women leveraged their consumer roles into personal and social opportunities In the consumer sphere they sought solutions for their isolation their desire for upward mobility and personal expression and their families survival Through their purchasing power Canadian women transformed consumer culture into an arena of political engagement

Moving Beyond Borders Karen Carole Flynn,2011-01-01 Moving Beyond Borders is the first book length history of Black health care workers in Canada delving into the experiences of thirty five postwar era nurses who were born in Canada or who immigrated from the Caribbean either through Britain or directly to Canada Karen Flynn examines the shaping of these women s stories from their childhoods through to their roles as professionals and community activists Flynn interweaves oral histories with archival sources to show how these women s lives were shaped by their experiences of migration professional training and family life Theoretical analyses from postcolonial gender and diasporic Black Studies serve to highlight the multiple subjectivities operating within these women s lives By presenting a collective biography of identity formation Moving Beyond Borders reveals the extraordinary complexity of Black women s history

Donald Creighton Donald A. Wright,2015-09-15 A member of the same intellectual generation as Harold Innis Northrop Frye and George Grant Donald Creighton 1902 1979 was English Canada s first great historian The author of eleven books including The Commercial Empire of the St Lawrence and a two volume biography of John A Macdonald Creighton wrote history as if it had happened he said the day before yesterday And as a public intellectual he advised the prime minister of Canada the premier of Ontario and at least on one occasion the British government Yet he was as Donald Wright shows also profoundly out of step with his times As the nation was re imagined along bilingual and later multicultural lines in the 1960s and 1970s Creighton defended a British definition of Canada at the same time as he began to fear that he would be remembered only as a pessimist a bigot and a violent Tory partisan Through his virtuoso research into Creighton s own voluminous papers Wright paints a sensitive portrait of a brilliant but difficult man Ultimately Donald Creighton captures the twentieth century transformation of English Canada through the life and times of one of its leading intellectuals

Wisdom, Justice and Charity Suzanne Morton,2014-06-09 One of Canada s first social workers Jane B Wisdom had an active career in social welfare that spanned almost the first half of the twentieth century Competent thoughtful and trusted she had a knack for being in important places at pivotal moments Wisdom s transnational career took her from Saint John to Montreal New York City Halifax and Glace Bay as well as into almost every field of social work Her story offers a remarkable opportunity to uncover what life was like for front line social workers in the profession s early years In Wisdom Justice and Charity historian Suzanne Morton uses Wisdom s professional life to explore how the welfare state was built from the ground up by thousands of pragmatic and action oriented social workers Wisdom s career illustrates the impact of professionalization gender and changing notions of the state not just on those in the emergent profession of social work but also on those in need Her life and career stand as a potent allegory for the limits and possibilities of individual action
