Marriage Today A Commentary On The Code Of Canon Law:

Marriage Today Bernard Andrew Siegle, 1966 Marriage Today Bernard Andrew Siegle, 1973 Marriage today: a commentary of the code of canon law in the light of Vatican II and the ecumenical age Bernard Andrew Siegle, 1973 New Commentary on the Code of Canon Law John P. Beal, James A. Coriden, Thomas Joseph Green, 2000 A complete and updated commentary on the Code of Canon Law prepared by the leading canonists of North America and Europe Contains the full newly translated text of the Code itself as well as detailed commentaries by thirty six scholars commissioned by the Canon Law Society of America A Practical Commentary on the Code of Canon Law Stanislaus Woywod, 1925 The Canon Law Collection of the Library of Congress Library of Congress, 2003 Ferreira Ibarra Dario C Compiler The Canon Law Collection of the Library of Congress A General Bibliography with Selective Annotations Washington Library of Congress 1981 xiii 210 pp 8 1 2 x 11 Reprinted 2004 by The Lawbook Exchange Ltd LCCN 2003052789 ISBN 1 58477 366 9 Cloth 150 The Library of Congress has one of the largest collections of published Canon Law materials in the world This bibliography which includes all items catalogued before 1980 is thus a powerful guide to a body of legal literature that dates back to the birth of printing The first three sections cover early editions of the Code of Canon Law the code s historical foundations and the decisions of the Roman Rota or the Church s jurisprudence The remaining sections correspond exactly to the divisions of the Code of Canon Law and cover such subjects as persons things procedural law and crimes and penalties Comprehensive author and subject indexes are included as well Thermonuclear Monarchy Elaine Scarry, 2014-02-17 From one of our leading social thinkers a compelling case for the elimination of nuclear weapons During his impeachment proceedings Richard Nixon boasted I can go into my office and pick up the telephone and in twenty five minutes seventy million people will be dead Nixon was accurately describing not only his own power but also the power of every American president in the nuclear age Presidents Eisenhower Kennedy Johnson and Nixon each contemplated using nuclear weapons Eisenhower twice Kennedy three times Johnson once Nixon four times Whether later presidents from Ford to Obama considered using them we will learn only once their national security papers are released In this incisive masterfully argued new book award winning social theorist Elaine Scarry demonstrates that the power of one leader to obliterate millions of people with a nuclear weapon a possibility that remains very real even in the wake of the Cold War deeply violates our constitutional rights undermines the social contract and is fundamentally at odds with the deliberative principles of democracy According to the Constitution the decision to go to war requires rigorous testing by both Congress and the citizenry when a leader can single handedly decide to deploy a nuclear weapon we live in a state of thermonuclear monarchy not democracy The danger of nuclear weapons comes from potential accidents or acquisition by terrorists hackers or rogue countries But the gravest danger comes from the mistaken idea that there exists some case compatible with legitimate governance There can be no such case Thermonuclear Monarchy shows the deformation of governance that occurs when a country gains nuclear weapons In bold and lucid prose

Thermonuclear Monarchy identifies the tools that will enable us to eliminate nuclear weapons and bring the decision for war back into the hands of Congress and the people Only by doing so can we secure the safety of home populations foreign populations and the earth itself

Canon 1096 on Ignorance with Application to Tribunal and Pastoral Practice

Girard M. Sherba, 2001 Before Vatican II marriage was often considered or at least popularly expressed as a union of bodies that is to say marriage was an exclusive contract by which a man and a woman mutually handed over their bodies for the purpose of acts which led to the procreation of children Matrimonial jurisprudence was primarily focused on this marital contract With the advent of Vatican II and its emphasis on the personalist notion of marriage a new age dawned whereby canonists especially auditors of the Roman Rota were henceforth to view marriage as a union of persons Person is more than a body rather a person is an individual consisting of wants needs desires impulses hopes and dreams whose life experience has been shaped by the milieu cultural familial religious from which he or she comes Union is not only simply understood as a contract but also is now once again recognized as a covenant a concept which at least in the Latin Church was prevalent until the 12th century One of the canons of the 1983 CIC although almost identical in wording to its predecessor in the 1917 CIC but which now must be understood and interpreted in light of the teachings of Vatican II is canon 1096 which pertains to the effect of ignorance on matrimonial consent Given the current appreciation of marriage founded in the teachings of Vatican II especially in Gaudium et spes reiterated by Popes Paul VI and John Paul II and described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church complicated by today's western society's stress on individualism and permeated by a divorce mentality what is the impact of this canon on matrimonial consent How can its meaning once understood as being wider than merely the sexual act itself be better utilized by those in tribunal ministry This is the major thrust of the present work The research of the history and development of the concept of ignorance in canonical writings how its understanding broadened especially after Vatican II and our conclusions on how to apply its richness to marriage nullity led us to expand the use of this canon how it can aid in the development of pre marital preparation programs which would not only possibly help prevent couples from being ignorant of the essence of marriage but also help them to appreciate this richness more deeply in their own lives so that marriage truly can become as we read in canon 1055 a partnership of the whole of life which is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring It is our sincere hope that this study with its extensive footnotes and up to date bibliography will not only be of benefit to all who read it but also will serve as a spring board for further discussion and use of this canon as a ground for nullity and other pastoral uses
