Jr., 2022-06-06 During this time of a pandemic season and beyond I hope to articulate a message in my book that you do not have to be stuck when you find out the root cause of your problem's Many situations arise because there are so many variations of sin used by the enemy to deceive people into thinking they have what they do not have Today not tomorrow quit trying to please whoever it is that does not appreciate you on your job church school college team family relationship or marriage God has a door appointed for you to go through Living in denial will delay prohibit your mobility Do not suppress your innermost feelings when you know you were once free but now it feels like a trap within everyday life because of what somebody does or does not do Life is meant to bring about trials and tribulations however if you can unravel the hidden truths you are destined to be set free Take charge and put action to your repetitive thoughts of what you constantly think about doing continually At some point in life you have to ask God for the revelation to say enough is enough Otherwise through time you will accumulate multiple regrets which will cause you to be incarcerated from your choices Today please break free and move into your destiny Do not bury yourself while you still live Please act upon a solution get away from denial and make that long awaited change that gets you away from being stuck Hence that level of immobility will penetrate your mind until you take action After you conclude to take action you will not have to look back anymore Fear ye not stand still and see the salvation of the Lord The Lord will fight for you and ye shall hold your peace Exodus 14 13a 14 KJV Remember sometimes if not all the time you must take feasible action for change Failure to do so could result in being STUCK Living In Denial Will Prohibit Your Mobility Married Women and the Law in Premodern Northwest Europe Cordelia Beattie, Matthew Frank Stevens, 2013 Fresh approaches to how premodern women were viewed in legal terms demonstrating how this varied from country to country and across the centuries There has been a tendency in scholarship on premodern women and the law to see married women as hidden from view obscured by their husbands in legal records This volume provides a corrective view arguing that the extent to which the legal principle of coverture applied has been over emphasized In particular it points up differences between the English common law position which gave husbands guardianship over their wives and their wives property and the position elsewhere in northwest Europe where wives property became part of a community of property Detailed studies of legal material from medieval and early modern England Wales Scotland Ireland Ghent Sweden Norway and Germany enable a better sense of how when and where the legal principle of coverture was applied and what effect this had on the lives of married women Key threads running through the book are married women s rights regarding the possession of moveable and immovable property marital property at the dissolution of marriage married women s capacity to act as agents of their husbands and households in transacting business and married women s interactions with the courts Cordelia Beattie is Senior Lecturer in Medieval History at the University of Edinburgh Matthew Frank Stevens is Lecturer in Medieval History at Swansea University Contributors Lars Ivar Hansen Shennan Hutton Elizabeth Johnson Gillian Kenny Mia Korpiola Miriam Muller S C Ogilvie Alexandra Shepard Cathryn Spence

Marriage Sexuality and Gender examines contemporary debates about the meaning and value of marriage The book analyzes arguments for traditional marriage including those of neonaturalists utilitarians and communitarians or virtue theorists The volume also considers a range of feminist welfarist and liberationist arguments for ending the institution altogether It evaluates two major reform movements one focused on expanding marriage to include same sex couples and the other focused on the use of law to render marriage more internally just The book concludes with a plea to activists to redirect marriage equality movements toward the creation of an entirely secular civil union law that would respect a broader range of private life long commitments including but not limited to same and opposite sex couples without threatening the role of religious marriage in the lives of those who embrace it and without penalizing nonparticipants
