Fragments of a Lost Homeland Armen T. Marsoobian,2015-03-13 The Armenian world was shattered by the 1915 genocide Not only were thousands of lives lost but families were displaced and the narrative threads that connected them to their own past and homelands were forever severed Many have been left with only fragments of their family histories a story of survival passed on by a grandparent who made it through the cataclysm or if lucky an old photograph of a distant silent ancestor By contrast the Dildilian family chose to speak Two generations gave voice to their experience in lengthy written memoirs in diaries and letters and most unusually in photographs and drawings Their descendant Armen T Marsoobian uses all these resources to tell their story and in doing so brings to life the pivotal and often violent moments in Armenian and Ottoman history from the massacres of the late nineteenth century to the final expulsions in the 1920s during the Turkish War of Independence Unlike most Armenians the Dildilians were allowed to convert to Islam and stayed behind while their friends colleagues and other family members perished in the death marches of 1915 1916 Their remarkable story is one of survival against the overwhelming odds and survival in the face of peril Teaching and Learning About Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity Samuel Totten,2019-02-01 Teaching and Learning About Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity Fundamental Issues and Pedagogical Approaches by Samuel Totten a renowned scholar of genocide studies and Professor Emeritus College of Education and Health Professions University of Arkansas Fayetteville is a culmination of 30 years in the field of genocide studies and education In writing this book Totten reports that he crafted this book along the lines of what he wished had been available to him when he first began teaching about genocide back in the mid 1980s That is a book that combines the best of genocide theory the realities of the genocidal process and how to teach about such complex and often terrible and difficult issues and facts in a theoretically historically and pedagogically sound manner As the last book he will ever write on education and educating about genocide he perceives the book as his gift to those educators who have the heart and grit to tackle such an important issue in their classrooms
