

Introduction

My husband, Andy, and I gave our first cocktail party eighteen years ago when we were living in one of those spacious, high-ceilinged, rent-controlled apartments on Riverside Drive in New York. The windows of the apartment overlooked Riverside Park and the Hudson River, and if you craned your neck you could see the George Washington Bridge. At night the view was especially beautiful—we could see the lights on the Jersey side of the river, the occasional boat on the dark water, and, in the foreground, the large treetops of the park.

This was a Christmas open house, and we invited absolutely everyone we knew. I had lots of time in those days, since I was at home on maternity leave from my job. I spent many happy weeks planning and preparing for that party, with our three-month-old daughter Alexis watching and “helping” from her baby chair in the kitchen.
