Are you enjoying fully the liberties guaranteed you by the Bill of Rights?

Some of us are not! For instance, certain racial and minority groups in this country find that discrimination robs them of theirs. Ask yourself if you are enjoying yours without let or hindrance.

Here they are - liberty to see and hear all that goes on at home and abroad, via a free press, radio and movies. Liberty to speak your mind privately and publicly, free from censorship and arbitrary control, and incidentally to hear the other man speak his. Liberty to move about and to conduct freely your business and personal affairs, with due respect to the rights of others. Freedom of worship, and freedom from discrimination of sex, race, color and creed.

For twenty-five years, through the stormiest period of American history, the American Civil Liberties Union, has been the watchdog of these liberties. It is the only national organization of a non-partisan character fighting for the rights of all without distinction. Frequently and necessarily, we defend the rights of those with whom we frankly disagree, for we know that to deny rights to one is to threaten the rights of all.

Critical times are still with us. We are perhaps entering upon greater perils to human freedom than we have ever known. The Union must have more influence, needs more power to meet and combat every threat that may arise to the basic freedoms of our people. This means that we need more members - that we need you, as you also need us.

Won't you read the enclosed program for 1946 and use the membership blank to join our ranks? This will bring you full information on the cause of civil liberties in America, and will bring us your generous support.

Sincerely yours,

Chairman of the Board

Meeting the Communist Threat : Truman to Reagan Thomas G. Paterson Professor of History University of Connecticut, 1988-03-24

In this provocative new book the distinguished diplomatic historian Thomas G Paterson explores why and how Americans have perceived and exaggerated the Communist threat in the last half century Telling the story through rich analysis and substantial research in private papers government archives oral histories contemporary writings and scholarly works Paterson explains the origins and evolution of United States global intervention In penetrating essays on the ideas and programs of Harry S Truman George F Kennan Dwight D Eisenhower John Foster Dulles John F Kennedy Richard M Nixon Henry A Kissinger and Ronald Reagan as well as on the views of dissenters from the prevailing Cold War mentality Paterson reveals the tenacity and momentum of American thinking about threats from abroad Paterson offers a thorough review of postwar American attitudes toward totalitarianism the causes of international conflict and foreign aid and he then demonstrates how Truman acted upon these views launched the containment doctrine and exercised American power in both Europe and Asia A fresh look at Eisenhower s policy in the Middle East explains how the United States became a major player in that volatile region Paterson also presents an incisive critique of Kennedy s foreign policy describing an administration propelled by lessons from Truman s era an assertive can do style and a grandiose notion of America's nation building responsibilities in the Third World Arrogance ignorance and impatience Paterson argues combined with familiar exaggerations of Soviet capabilities and intentions to produce a rash of crises from the Bay of Pigs and missile crisis in Cuba to the war in Vietnam Other chapters study the flawed record of 1970s detente CIA covert actions and the failure of congressional oversight from the 1940s to the present and Reagan's rewriting of the history of the Vietnam War In the last chapter Paterson demolishes the argument that the Vietnam War could have been won and probes the analogy between Vietnam and Central America in the 1980s Americans did not invent the Communist threat Paterson contends but they have certainly exaggerated it nurturing a trenchant anti communism that has had a devastating effect on international relations and American institutions An important backdrop to recent foreign policy Meeting the Communist Threat combines extensive scholarship and perceptive analysis to provide a vivid account of Cold War policy in America

Japanese America on the Eve of the Pacific War Kaoru Ueda, Eiichiro Azuma, 2024-02-01 The era sandwiched between the 1924 US Immigration Act and the 1941 Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor marks an important yet largely buried period of Japanese American history This book offers the first English translation of Yasuo Sakata's seminal essay arguing that the 1930s constitutes a chronological and conceptual missing link between two predominant research interests the pre 1924 immigration exclusion and the mass incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II The anthology pays tribute to Sakata's role as a foremost historian of early Japanese America and transpacific migration while providing an opportunity for a younger generation of scholars to reflect on his contributions and carve out a new area of research in Japanese American history Original and translated essays from scholars of varied backgrounds and generations explore topics from diplomacy geopolitics and trade to immigrant and ethnic nationalism education and citizenship Together they attempt to catalyze further research and writing based on the thorough and careful analysis of primary source materials an effort that Sakata spearheaded in both the United States and Japan
