Martin Luther Prophet To The Catholic Church:

Martin Luther James Atkinson, 2004-10-18 Written in the five hundredth year after the birth of Luther James Atkinson here presents a heartfelt argument that the time is ripe not for a possibly divisive celebration of Martin Luther's break from the Roman Catholic Church but rather for a completion of Luther's work a fulfillment of Reformation goals a reunified truly catholic Church Atkinson argues that changes in Roman Catholic theology since the sixteenth century have brought it very nearly to the point that Luther wished it to attain and that the crucially important reforms initiated by the Second Vatican Council in 1965 indicate a new spirit of ecumenical openness to a rapprochement with the separated brethren of the Protestant denominations Such a reunification says Atkinson would be more genuinely in the spirit of Luther's work than any strident maintenance of Protestant dogma for its own sake The first part of this book offers a brief historical survey of Catholic perspectives on Luther from 1517 to the present from the early sixteenth century invective against Luther which set the tone for more than four centuries of Catholic perceptions of Luther and his legacy to the exciting revaluation of Luther in the past few decades In the second and larger portion of the book Atkinson delves more deeply into the main points of doctrinal contention between Catholics and Protestants and suggests that the gap between the two is no longer so large as to preclude its being bridged in a spirit of fellowship in faith

Baptism in the Theology of Martin Luther Jonathan D. Trigg, 2021-12-06 Baptism in the Theology of Martin Luther satisfies the need for a comprehensive survey in English of Martin Luther on baptism The mature Luther was unstinting in praise of baptism How does his vigorously expressed sacramental understanding sit with his earlier reformation insights What is its impact upon justification faith conversion the Church The tensions and paradoxes are examined Analysis of formal doctrine is complemented by a picture of baptism in action culled mainly from the Lectures on Genesis Central is baptism's present tense its abiding force in the Christian's life ever available for an encounter with God His insistence that Christian progress is not onwards from baptism but a repeated return to it emerges from the heart of Luther's thought It is one of his most distinctive and important bequests to the Church

Parable of the Sheep and Goats Matthew 25 31 46 Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance In Search of Ancient Roots Kenneth J. Stewart, 2017-10-31 Perceiving a disconnect between their Protestant tradition and ancient Christianity younger generations are abandoning evangelicalism for traditions that appear more rooted in the early church Surveying five centuries church history Ken Stewart argues for the rich Protestant connections to the Reformation and early Christianity
