Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, 1891 , Episcopacy, Authority, and Gender Jan Wim Buisman, Marjet Derks, Peter Raedts, 2015-09-07 What is the base of religious leadership and how has it changed over the centuries This volume presents a range of actors both men and women who in a variety of historical contexts claimed to be the living voices or intermediaries of God The essays analyse the foundation of their authoritative claims and ask how and how far they succeeded in securing obedience from the Christians to whom they addressed their message Religious authority is not understood as a monolithic entity but as something derived from many sources and claims Whatever the national background whether ordained or supposedly appointed through divine intervention the histories of the people portrayed underline the long term manifestations and multifaceted nature of Christian identity British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books , 1892 Arianism: Roman Heresy and Barbarian Creed Guido M. Berndt, 2016-04-15 This is the first volume to attempt a comprehensive overview of the evolution of the Arian churches in the Roman world of Late Antiquity and their political importance in the late Roman kingdoms of the 5th 6th centuries ruled by barbarian warrior elites Bringing together researchers from the disciplines of theology history and archaeology and providing an extensive bibliography it constitutes a breakthrough in a field largely neglected in historical studies A polemical term coined by the Orthodox Church the side that prevailed in the Trinitarian disputes of the 4th century C E for its opponents in theology as well as in ecclesiastical politics Arianism has often been seen as too complicated to understand outside the group of theological specialists dealing with it and has therefore sometimes been ignored in historical studies The studies here offer an introduction to the subject grounded in the historical context then examine the adoption of Arian Christianity among the Gothic contingents of the Roman army and its subsequent diffusion in the barbarian kingdoms of the late Roman world Episcopal Elections in Late Antiquity Johan Leemans, 2011 The election of a new bishop was a defining moment for local Christian communities in Late Antiquity This volume contributes to a reassessment of the phenomenon of episcopal elections from the broadest possible perspective examining the varied combination of factors personalities rules and habits that played a role in the process Building on the state of the art regarding late antique bishops and episcopal election this interdisciplinary volume of collected studies by leading scholars offers fresh perspectives by focussing on specific case studies and opening up new approaches The New Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge Johann Jakob Herzog, Albert Hauck, Samuel Macauley Jackson, Charles Colebrook Sherman, George William Gilmore, 1910 A Sacred Kingdom Michael Edward Moore, 2011-11-07 Michael Edward Moore is assistant professor of medieval and European history at the University of Iowa Lives of the Fathers Frederic William Farrar, 1889 The Canon and Beyond Tobias Nicklas , 2024-10-28 How did the canon of the New Testament come into being To what extent can we also speak of a history of the already existing canon What functions were and are assigned to it in different historical contexts What is the relationship between canonical writings and extra canonical writings What is the relationship between Christian apocrypha and the texts of the Bible from the Old and New Testaments The number of questions surrounding the canon of New Testament writings and the lasting significance of apocryphal writings and traditions in relation to the canon is almost inexhaustible This volume brings together contributions by Tobias Nicklas on these topics from the past twenty years A particular focus is on the reassessment of Christian apocrypha and their relationship to image and rite and on understanding of canon as a dynamic entity
