Martyrdom Rona M. Fields, 2004-03-30 Martyrdom is a controversial and disputed concept Just as religion is often hijacked by politics martyrdom is frequently ascribed to a narrow partisan and parochial foundation This is the first book to present varied views on the topic of martyrdom reaching beyond cliches and simplistic explanations to provoke deep consideration of the essential nature of human beings and society The volume s authors experts in the disciplines of psychology theology and politics examine martyrdom in thoughtful and thought provoking chapters A closing conversation between the authors is designed to inspire further discourse and debate Readers engaged in the exploration of social justice conflict psychology religion and the politics of memory will find this book unique and stimulating The authors have appeared on public television and public radio as well as ABC CBS and NBC news and discussion programs The Spirituality of Martyrdom Servais Pinckaers, 2016-05-06 Since the publication in English of his masterwork The Sources of Christian Ethics Servais Pinckaers has become the preferred guide for English speaking students of Catholic moral theology This late Belgian Dominican has made themes such as Beatitude happiness virtue and freedom for excellence standard features of classroom instruction in ethics moral theology and catechesis Father Pinckaers s new directions in moral theology came none too soon to Anglo American moral thought which otherwise would have become submerged completely under the waves of one kind of relativism or another Instead of enabling cheap escapes from moral truth Father Pinckaers directs his students to the Sermon on the Mount There they discover that those who suffer persecution for justice s sake are called blessed or happy This suffering may even lead to death The present volume completes Sources It gives us a theological account of Christian martyrdom Authentic martyrs testify to the highest meaning that God inscribes into the moral life In a word nothing should deter the Christian from choosing God No one completes a Christian life without becoming at least a martyr for charity from back cover Political Self-Sacrifice K. Cyprianist mentality colored everything they held a conscientious regard for oaths the Usages Controversy brought Tradition to the fore printing presses replaced lost pulpits patronage was a means of protection and proliferation they lived with a hybridized conception of time creative women spiritual writers complemented male bishops and a global ecumenical approach to the Orthodox East was visionary These ten operated synergistically to create an effective tool for the Nonjurors survival and success in their mission The Nonjurors influence out of all proportion to their size was due in large measure to this mentality Their unique circumstances prompted creative thinking and they were superb in that endeavor These perspectives constituted the infrastructure of the Nonjurors world and they help us to see the early eighteenth century not only as a time of rapid change but also as an era of persistent older religious mentalities adapted to new circumstances

Sacrifice and Value Sidney Axinn, 2010-10-14 Sacrifice and Value A Kantian Interpretation argues that we create values by making sacrifices Values don't exist outside of us they exist only when we give a gift without expecting a return As Sidney Axinn demonstrates we must have values in order to make decisions to have friends or lovers and to choose goals of any sort Sacrifice is basic to almost everything of importance care love religion patriotism loyalties warfare friendship gift giving morality Axin uses Aristotle Cicero and Kant and contemporary philosophers Oldenquest Frankfurt Friedman Starobinski and others to analyze the role of sacrifice A novel feature is the attention given to Kant's use of sacrifice Sacrifice and Value will interest advanced students and scholars of philosophy particularly value theory and moral theory as well as women's studies religion political theory and psychology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Martyrdom Paul
