Marx And Contradiction Cash Care

Benjamin C. Wilson

Marx And Contradiction Cash Care:

The Unfinished System of Karl Marx Judith Dellheim, Frieder Otto Wolf, 2018-04-13 This book examines what we can gain from a critical reading of Marx's final manuscript and his conclusion of the systematic presentation of his critique which was the basis for Engels's construction of the third volume of his infamous Capital. The text introduces the reader to a key problem of Marx's largely implicit epistemology by exploring the systematic character of his exposition and the difference of this kind of systematicity from Hegelian philosophical system construction. The volume contributes to establishing a new understanding of the critique of political economy as it has been articulated in various debates since the 1960s especially in France, Germany, and Italy and as it had already been initiated by Marx and some of his followers with Rosa Luxemburg in a key role. All the chapters are transdisciplinary in nature and explore the modern day relevance of Marx's and Luxemburg's theoretical analysis of the dominance of the capitalist mode of production.

Marx in Context Louis Patsouras, 2005-04 Since their first collaborative appearance in the mid 1840s Marx and Engels have become central players in the western intellectual tradition. They have inspired two significant Communist revolutions of the 20th century: the Russian and Chinese. Marx in Context delineates the principal ideas of Marx and Engels as it pertains to such subjects as human exploitation, alienation, the sufferings of the 19th century working class in England, and their human condition, imperialism, the women's question, and religion. Marx's ideas are discussed in precise detail with other socialist and conservative thinkers including classical English economist Adam Smith, Thomas Robert Malthus, David Ricardo, anarchists Pierre Joseph Proudhon, Michael Bakunin, and Peter Kropotkin. Also included are Max Weber, V. I. Lenin, Thorstein Veblen, Vilfredo Pareto, William Graham Sumner, Jean Paul Sartre, Simone Weil, Paul Tillich, Carl Barth, Walter Rauchenbusch, Gustavo Gutierrez, Harry Braverman, and other significant thinkers who together help produce the necessary contrast that brings the ideas of Marx and Engels alive. Being the first work to depict the similarities and differences of Marx and Engels with other prominent thinkers, Marx in Context seeks to reaffirm the purpose behind their vision.

New Polarizations and Old Contradictions: The Crisis of Centrism Greg Albo, Colin Leys, 2021-12-27 Takes the buzzword polarization as its point of departure to describe the vast and ever growing economic inequality worldwide. Polarization is a word commonly used by everyone from mainstream journalists to the person in the street whatever their political stripe. But this widely recognized phenomenon deserves scrutiny. The 58th volume of the Socialist Register takes up the challenge asking such questions as: Are the current tendencies towards polarization new and if so what is their significance? What underlying contradictions between race, class, income, gender, and geopolitics do the latest polarization trends expose? And to what extent can centrist politics continue to hold and contain these internal contradictions? This volume's original essays examine the escalating polarization of national, racial, generational, and other identities all in the context of growing economic inequality, new forms of regional and urban antagonism, vaccine nationalism, and the shifting parameters of rivalry between the Great Powers.

Care, Climate, and

Debt Benjamin C. Wilson, 2022-08-22 This volume spans economics history sociology law graphic design religion environmental science politics and more to offer a transdisciplinary examination of debt From this perspective many of our most pressing social and environmental crises are explored to raise critical questions about debt s problems and possibilities Who do we owe Where are the offsetting credits Why do such persistent deficits in care permeate so much of our lives Can we imagine new approaches to balance sheets measures of value and justice to reconcile these deficits Often regarded as a constraint on our ability to meet the challenges of our day this volume reimagines debt as a social construct capable of empowering people to organize and produce sustainable prosperity for all This text is ideal for provoking classroom discussions that not only point out the gravity of the crises we face in the twenty first century but also seeks to set readers minds free to create innovative solutions

The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood Sharon Hays, 1996-01-01 Working mothers today confront not only conflicting demands on their time and energy but also conflicting ideas about how they are to behave they must be nurturing and unselfish while engaged in child rearing but competitive and ambitious at work As more and more women enter the workplace it would seem reasonable for society to make mothering a simpler and more efficient task Instead Sharon Hays points out in this original and provocative book an ideology of intensive mothering has developed that only exacerbates the tensions working mothers face Drawing on ideas about mothering since the Middle Ages on contemporary childrearing manuals and on in depth interviews with mothers from a range of social classes Hays traces the evolution of the ideology of intensive mothering an ideology that holds the individual mother primarily responsible for child rearing and dictates that the process is to be child centered expert guided emotionally absorbing labor intensive and financially expensive Hays argues that these ideas about appropriate mothering stem from a fundamental ambivalence about a system based solely on the competitive pursuit of individual interests In attempting to deal with our deep uneasiness about self interest we have imposed unrealistic and unremunerated obligations and commitments on mothering making it into an opposing force a primary field on which this cultural ambivalence is played out

Oxford Handbook of Sociology, Social Theory and Organization Studies Paul S. Adler, Paul du Gay, Glenn Morgan, Michael Reed, 2014-10-16 Sociology and social theory has always been a major source of new perspectives for organization studies Access to a series of authoritative accounts of theorists and research themes in sociology and social theory which have influenced developments in organization studies is essential for those wishing to deepen and extend their knowledge of the intersection of sociology and organization studies This goal is achieved by drawing on a group of internationally renowned scholars committed in their own work to strengthening these links and asking them to provide critical accounts of particular theorists and research themes which have straddled this divide This volume aims to strengthen ties between organization studies and contemporary sociological work at a time when there are increasing institutional barriers to such cooperation potentially generating a myopia that constricts new developments Used in conjunction with its companion volume The Oxford Handbook of Sociology and Organization Studies Classical foundations the reader is provided with a comprehensive account of the productive and critical interaction between sociology and organization studies over many decades Highly international in scope theorists and themes are drawn from both the USA and Europe in equal measure Similarly the authors of the chapters are drawn from both sides of the Atlantic The result is a series of chapters on individuals and key research themes and debates which will provide faculty and post graduate researchers with appreciative authoritative and critical accounts that can be drawn on to design courses or provided guided reading to the field

Marx in the Field Alessandra Mezzadri, 2021-02-15 Marx in the Field is a unique edited collection illustrating the relevance of the Marxian method to study contemporary capitalism and the global development process Essays in the collection bring Marx to the field in three ways They illustrate how Marxian categories can be concretely deployed for field research in the global economy they analyse how these categories may be adapted during fieldwork and they discuss data collection methods supporting Marxian analysis Crucially many of the contributions expand the scope of Marxian analysis by combining its insights with those of other intellectual traditions including radical feminisms critical realism and postcolonial studies The book defines the possibilities and challenges of fieldwork guided by Marxian analysis including those emerging from the COVID 19 pandemic The collection takes a global approach to the study of development and of contemporary capitalism While some essays focus on themes and geographical areas of long term concern for international development like informal or rural poverty and work across South Asia Southern and West Africa or South America others focus instead on actors benefitting from the development process like regional exporters larger farmers and traders or on unequal socio economic outcomes across richer and emerging economies and regions including Gulf countries North America Southern Europe or Post Soviet Central and Eastern Europe Some essays explore global processes cutting across the world economy connecting multiple regions actors and inequalities While some of the contributions focus on classic Marxian tropes in the study of contemporary capitalism like class labour and working conditions agrarian change or global commodity chains and prices others aim at demonstrating the relevance of the Marxian method beyond its traditional boundaries for instance for exploring the interplays between food nutrition and poverty the links between social reproduction gender and homework the features of migration and refugees regimes tribal chieftaincy structures or prison labour or the dynamics structuring global surrogacy Overall through the analysis of an extremely varied set of concrete settings and cases this book illustrates the extraordinary insights we can gain by bringing Marx in the field

Arrow of Chaos Ira Livingston, 1997-01-01 Health Care Reform and Possible Effects on Innovative Therapies United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science, Space, and Technology. Subcommittee on Technology, Environment, and Aviation, 1994

The Compassionate Temperament Natan Sznaider, 2001 This text argues that it is the nature of modernity to foster compassion It offers a historical view to disprove the idea that modernity erodes moral sentiment and breaks down older social bonds The book looks at the way in which modern society is building new and different social bonds
