Marxism And Phenomenology:

Marxism and Phenomenology Shirley R. Pike, 2019-11-19 First published in 1986 The social sciences in the twentieth century have tended to fragment into different disciplines and schools of thought Often these schools of thought are complete but closed systems of thought permitting no exchange of ideas with other disciplines or schools In view of this one very interesting recent development has been the attempt by some Marxist theorists to develop a theory of phenomenological Marxism At first sight the possibility of a liason between dialectical materialism and subjective idealism appears remote and indeed other Marxists have dismissed phenomenological Marxism as simplistic humanism revisionist and incompatible with Marxist science This book explores the possibilities and difficulties of synthesising two apparently disparate philosophical frameworks It looks at the philosophical roots of the two frameworks and discusses the logic epistemology ontology and methodology of each The author concludes that a synthesis between Marxism and phenomenology is not impossible on philosophical grounds

Marxism and Phenomenology Bryan Smyth, Richard Westerman, 2021-10-25 Marxism and Phenomenology The Dialectical Horizons of Critique edited by Bryan Smyth and Richard Westerman offers new perspectives on the possibility of a philosophical outlook that combines Marxism and phenomenology in the critique of capitalism Although Marxism s focus on impersonal social structures and phenomenology s concern with lived experience can make these traditions appear conceptually incompatible the potential critical force of a theoretical reconciliation inspired several attempts in the twentieth century to articulate a phenomenological Marxism Updating and extending this approach the contributors to this volume identify and develop new and previously overlooked connections between the traditions offering new perspectives on Marx Husserl and Heidegger exploring themes such as alienation reification and ecology and examining the intersection of Marxism and phenomenology in figures such as Michel Henry Walter Benjamin and Frantz Fanon These glimpses of a productive reconciliation of the respective strengths of phenomenology and Marxism offer promising possibilities for illuminating and resolving the increasingly intense social crises of capitalism in the twenty first century

Herbert Marcuse and the Crisis of Marxism Douglas Kellner, 1984-01-01 This book provides a critical overview of the entirety of Marcuse s work and discusses his enduring importance Kellner had extensive interviews with Marcuse and provides hitherto unknown information about his road to Marxism his relations with Heidegger and Existentialism his involvement with the Frankfurt School and his reasons for appropriating Freud in the 1950s In addition Kellner provides a novel interpretation of the genesis and structure of Marcuse s theory of one dimensional society of the development of his political theory and of the role of aesthetics in his critical theory

Marxism and Phenomenology Bryan Smyth, Richard Westerman, 2021-10-25 Marxism and Phenomenology The Dialectical Horizons of Critique edited by Bryan Smyth and Richard Westerman offers new perspectives on the possibility of a philosophical outlook that combines Marxism and phenomenology in the critique of capitalism Although Marxism s focus on impersonal social structures and phenomenology s concern with lived experience can make these traditions appear conceptually incompatible the potential critical force of a theoretical reconciliation inspired several attempts in the twentieth century to articulate a phenomenological Marxism Updating and extending this approach the contributors to this volume identify and develop new and previously overlooked connections between the traditions offering new perspectives on Marx Husserl and Heidegger exploring themes such as alienation reification and ecology and examining the intersection of Marxism and phenomenology in figures such as Michel Henry Walter Benjamin and Frantz Fanon These glimpses of a productive reconciliation of the respective strengths of phenomenology and Marxism offer promising possibilities for illuminating and resolving the increasingly intense social crises of capitalism in the twenty first century

PHENOMENOLOGY AND MARXISM RLE Bernhard Waldenfels, Jan M Broekman, Ante Paz Anin, 2015-12-11 Originally published in English in 1984 this collection of essays documents a dialogue between phenomenology and Marxism with the contributors representing a cross section from the two traditions The theoretical and historical presuppositions of the phenomenology inaugurated by Husserl are very different from those of the much older Marxist tradition yet as these essays show there are definite points of contact communication and exchange between the two traditions

Sociology, Phenomenology and Marxian Analysis Barry Smart, 2013-10-15 Sociology is an established academic discipline but there has been continuing debate over its status as a science and the nature of its subject matter This led to the emergence of a phenomenological sociology and to critiques of positivist sociology This critical reappraisal of the relevance of Marxian analysis for a science of society shows how these developments within sociology have had their counterpart in Marxism The author analyses the status of Marx's work and the Marxist tradition in sociology He focuses upon those concerns which are common to both Marxian analysis and sociology the question of subjectivity the nature of social reality and the dialectical relationship of the doing or practice of a science of society to the social world within which such social analyses are situated Originally published in 1976

Phenomenology and the Social World Laurie Spurling, 2013-10-15 The term phenomenology has become almost as over used and emptied of meaning as that other word from Continental Philosophy namely existentialism Yet Husserl who first put forward the phenomenological method considered it a rigorous alternative to positivism and in the hands of Merleau Ponty a disciple of Husserl in France phenomenology became a way of gaining a disciplined and coherent perspective on the world in which we live When this study originally published in 1977 there were only a few books in English on Merleau Ponty's philosophy It introduced the reader and suggested how his thought might throw light on some of the assumptions and presuppositions of certain contemporary forms of Anglo Saxon philosophy and social science It also demonstrates how phenomenology seeks to unite philosophy and social science rather than define them as mutually exclusive domains of knowledge

Phenomenology of Social Existence Remigius C. Kwant, 1965

Groundwork of Phenomenological Marxism Ian H. Angus, 2021-07-26 In Groundwork of Phenomenological Marxism Crisis Body World Ian H Angus investigates the crisis of reason in a contemporary context Beginning with Edmund Husserl's The Crisis of the European Sciences and Transcendental Phenomenology Angus connects the phenomenology of human motility to Marx's ontology of labor in Capital and shows its basis in natural fecundity excess He argues that the formalization of reason creates an inability to foster differentiated community as expected by both Husserl and Marx and that the formalization of human motility by the regime of value reveals the ontological productivity of natural fecundity showing that ecology is the contemporary exemplary science Addressing the crisis requires a philosophy of technology especially digital technology and a dialogue between cultural civilizational lifeworlds which surpasses Husserl's assumption that Europe is the home of reason Angus's overall conception of phenomenology is Socratic in that it is concerned with the presuppositions and applications of knowledge forms in their lifeworld grounding He further shows that the contemporary event is the epochal confrontation between planetary technology and place based Indigeneity This book lays out the fundamental concepts of a systematic phenomenological Marxian philosophy

Phenomenology and Dialectical Materialism Đức Thảo Trần, 1986 Tran Duc Thao a brilliant student of philosophy at the Ecole Normale Supérieure within the post 1935 decade of political disaster born in Vietnam shortly after the First World War recipient of a scholarship in Paris in 1935-37 was early noted for his independent and original mind While the 1930s twisted down to the defeat of the Spanish Republic the compromise with German Fascism at Munich and the start of the Second World War and while the 1940s began with hypocritical stability at the Western Front followed by the defeat of France and the occupation of Paris by the German power together with French collaborators and then ended with liberation and a search for a new understanding of human situations the young Thao was deeply immersed in the classical works of European philosophy He was also the attentive but critical student of a quite special generation of French metaphysicians and social philosophers Gaston Berger Maurice Merleau-Ponty Emile Brehier Henri Lefebvre René Lévinas Jean-Paul Sartre perhaps the young Louis Althusser They in their several modes of response had been meditating for more than a decade on the philosophy of Edmund Husserl which came to France in the thirties as a new metaphysical enlightenment phenomenology
