Power In Africa:

Power in Africa Patrick Chabal, 2016-07-27 This book will rightfully head many a reading list C Allen British Book News Power in Africa casts a fresh look at contemporary Black African politics It reviews the merits and failings of existing interpretations of Africa's post colonial society and offers a new approach to its understanding It has two main aims First to present a comparative conceptual framework which places Africa's politics within its appropriate historical context Second to offer an explanation of what is actually happening in Africa beyond the clichés of a dark continent perennially in crisis

States and Power in Africa Jeffrey Herbst, 2014-12-21 Originally published A2000 With new preface and revised chapter nine by the author Understanding Soft Power in Africa Oluwaseun Tella, 2025-10-21 Negative images of Africa which define the continent as being riven with poverty crime or war are increasingly being challenged Examples of soft power such as Nigeria's Nollywood athletic successes in Kenya Rwanda's commercial diplomacy and South Africa's liberal constitution are all reasserting African agency and shaping more positive understandings of the continent This book considers the role and impact of soft power in the African context and how it relates to the 21st century scramble for Africa Bringing together leading scholars in the field this book delves into various aspects of soft power in Africa shedding light on how the continent's attractiveness is shaped by soft power in the continent's biggest states the small states and also the regional organisations such as the African Union AU Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS Southern African Development Community SADC and East African Community EAC The book then goes on to assess the ways in which great powers most notably China the United States the United Kingdom Brazil and France are themselves deploying soft power in Africa in order to vie for influence resources and strategic advantages Understanding Soft Power in Africa will be an important read for researchers in political science international relations African studies and cultural studies as well as for African policymakers The Transfer of power in Africa, 1980 Technology, Gender, and Power in Africa Patricia Stamp, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1990 Technology Gender and Power in Africa Africa's Soft Power Oluwaseun Tella, 2021-05-23 This book investigates the ways in which soft power is used by African countries to help drive global influence Selecting four of the countries most associated with soft power across the continent this book delves into the currencies of soft power across the region from South Africa's progressive constitution and expanding multinational corporations to Nigeria's Nollywood film industry and Technical Aid Corps TAC scheme Kenya's sport diplomacy fashion and tourism industries and finally Egypt's Pan Arabism and its reputation as the cradle of civilisation The book asks how soft power is wielded by these countries and what constraints and contradictions they encounter Understandings of soft power have typically been driven by Western scholars but throughout this book Oluwaseun Tella aims to Africanise our understanding of soft power drawing on prominent African philosophies including Nigeria's Omolúwàb South Africa's Ubuntu Kenya's Harambee and Egypt's Pharaonism This book will be of interest to researchers from across political science

Women and Power in Africa Leonardo Rafael Arriola, Martha Johnson, Melanie L. Phillips, 2021 Women and Power in Africa examines women's experiences in African politics as aspirants to public office as candidates in election campaigns and as elected representatives Technology, Gender, and Power in Africa Patricia Stamp, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1990 Technology Gender and Power in Africa Independent Power Projects in Sub-Saharan Africa Anton Eberhard, Katharine Gratwick, Elvira Morella, Pedro Antmann, 2016-04-18 Inadequate electricity services pose a major impediment to reducing extreme poverty and boosting shared prosperity in Sub-Saharan Africa Simply put Africa does not have enough power Despite the abundant low carbon and low cost energy resources available to Sub-Saharan Africa the region's entire installed electricity capacity at a little over 80 GW is equivalent to that of the Republic of Korea Looking ahead Sub-Saharan Africa will need to ramp up its power generation capacity substantially The investment needed to meet this goal largely exceeds African countries already stretched public finances Increasing private investment is critical to help expand and improve electricity supply Historically most private sector finance has been channeled through privately financed independent power projects IPP supported by nonrecourse or limited recourse loans with long term power purchase agreements with the state utility or another off taker Between 1990 and 2014 IPPs have spread across Sub-Saharan Africa and are now present in 17 countries Currently there are 125 IPPs with an overall installed capacity of 10.7 GW and investments of 24.6 billion However private investment could be much greater and less concentrated South Africa alone accounts for 67 IPPs 4.3 GW of capacity and 14.4 billion of investments the remaining projects are concentrated in a handful of countries The objective of this study is to evaluate the experience of IPPs and identify lessons that can help African countries attract more and better private investment At the core of this analysis is a reflection on whether IPPs have in fact benefited Sub-Saharan Africa and how they might be improved The analysis is based primarily on in depth case studies carried out in five countries including Kenya Nigeria South Africa Tanzania and Uganda which not only have the most numerous but also among the most extensive experience with IPPs Power Politics in Africa Olusola Ogunnubi, Samuel Oyewole, 2020-11-09 This collection of essays examines the subject of power politics in Africa paying special attention to the interests of African regional powers as well as their capabilities and strategies in the international arena It provides a theoretical bridge between concerns for militarised national interest perpetual distrust and insecurity struggles for power and hegemony in power politics and the spirit of pan African solidarity brotherhood consensus cooperation and integration It is on these bases that this volume offers rich empirical insight into leading regional powers in Africa with special attention given to Nigeria and South Africa It serves to contribute African perspectives to the field of International Relations particularly regarding power politics which is important in terms of Africanising the narratives of a subject matter that is largely considered as Eurocentric in African and other non Western societies India in Africa: Changing Geographies of Power Emma Mawdsley, Gerard McCann, 2011-09-15 In one of the first analyses of contemporary Indian African relations this detailed book draws upon a collection of case studies that explore interrelated topics such as trade investment development aid civil society relations security and geopolitics While China s relationship to Africa has been thoroughly examined knowledge and analysis of India s role in Africa has until now been limited This book fills the gap and compares and contrasts India to China s role as a rising global power in the African continent Africa s Brain Power Asonglefac Nkemleke, 2019-03-30 Africa s Brain Power is a collection of editorial entries penned by AfricaOnline s Executive Editor between March 2016 and December 2017 The collection covers a variety of topics from abortion and alcoholism HIV AIDS migration sexual harassment polygamy STEM education social media bribery and corruption and many other exciting themes Ideas expressed in the reflections aimed to provoke discussion on AfricaOnline s Sunday afternoon live broadcasts and draw heavily from the author s rich broadcast journalism experience Readers will find the themes deeply thought provoking and the variety of topics fascinating This is a highly recommended reference for Africans seeking home grown solutions to their sociocultural and educational challenges Africa Uprising: A Shift in Global Power Dynamics Pasquale De Marco, In the vast tapestry of global history Africa s rise stands as a transformative chapter reshaping the dynamics of power and influence on the world stage Africa Uprising delves into this remarkable journey shedding light on the continent s evolving political economic and social landscape From the era of colonialism to the present day Africa has undergone a profound transformation The book delves into the complexities of decolonization examining its impact on African nations and their quest for self determination It explores the challenges and successes of post colonial development highlighting both the triumphs and the hurdles that have shaped the continent s trajectory Africa Uprising casts a discerning eye on the role of African leaders liberation movements and international actors in shaping the continent s destiny It analyzes the intricate relationship between Africa and the United States scrutinizing the impact of the Cold War on African politics and economies The book also confronts the urgent environmental challenges facing Africa such as climate change natural resource conservation and sustainable development It examines the intricate interplay between environmental degradation and political stability emphasizing the need for innovative solutions and collaborative action Africa Uprising does not shy away from the challenges that continue to beset the continent including political instability corruption and state fragility However it also shines a light on the growing potential for economic growth and development exploring the untapped resources entrepreneurial spirit and youthful population that are driving Africa s transformation The book concludes with a forward looking perspective examining Africa s future prospects and its potential role in shaping the global agenda It underscores the importance of international cooperation and partnership in addressing shared challenges and building a more prosperous and sustainable future for Africa and the world Africa Uprising is a comprehensive and thought provoking exploration of Africa's rise offering a nuanced understanding of the continent's past present and future It is an essential read for anyone seeking to navigate the complexities of a changing world order and comprehend the significance of Africa's growing influence on the global stage Africa's Power Infrastructure Orvika Rosnes, Maria Shkaratan, 2011 Africa's Power Infrastructure Investment Integration Efficiency is based on the most extensive data collection exercise ever undertaken on infrastructure in Africa the Africa Country Infrastructure Country Diagnostic AICD Data from this study have provided new insights on the extent of a power crisis in the region characterized by insufficient capacity low electricity connection rates high costs and poor reliability and on what can be done about it The continent faces an annual power sector financing gap of about 21 billion with much of the existing spending channeled to maintain and operate high cost power systems leaving little for the huge investments needed to provide a long term solution Meanwhile the power crisis is taking a heavy toll on economic growth and productivity This book asserts that the current impediments to economic growth and development need to be tackled through policies and investment strategies that renew efforts to reform state owned utilities build on the lessons of private participation in infrastructure projects retarget electrification strategies expand regional power trade and mobilize new funding resources Further development of regional power trade would allow Africa to harness larger scale and more cost effective energy sources reducing energy system costs by US 2 billion and carbon dioxide emissions by 70 million tons annually But reaping the promise of regional trade depends on a handful of major exporting countries raising the large volumes of finance needed to develop generation capacity for export it also requires a large number of importing countries to muster the requisite political will With increased utility efficiency and regional power trade in play power costs would fall and full cost recovery tariffs could become affordable in much of Africa This will make utilities more creditworthy and help sustain the flow of external finance to the sector which is essential to close the huge financing gap China's Power in Africa Olayiwola Abegunrin, Charity Manyeruke, 2019-10-23 This book examines China's political economic and diplomatic engagement in Africa The rapid increase of China's economic and political involvement in Africa is the most momentous development on the continent of Africa since the beginning of the twenty first century China is now Africa's largest trading partner and the largest infrastructure financier Additionally it is the fastest growing economy and source of foreign direct investment This monograph seeks to understand the dynamics of the escalating Chinese investments in African economies and the political implications of this development for Africa This work will interest scholars students academics and policy makers on the fields of Chinese and African politics development studies and international political economy The Power of the Occult in Modern Africa James Kiernan, 2006 The occult is a framework of ideas and related practices that is drawn upon as a common resource to provide an understanding of how an apparently random world really works Based mainly on experiential research in a range of African societies the essays in this volume examine the relevance of the occult to a variety of social concepts and contexts These studies stress three features of the occult in modern Africa 1 as an explanatory and tactical device it is resilient 2 it is malleable with a capacity to absorb and assimilate new elements 3 it is flexible and adaptable to emerging situations and novel circumstances Of interest to specialists in the fields of religion social science and African studies this book will benefit the general reader interested in the occult and its relevance to modernity and globalisation

Nigeria's Soft Power in Anglophone West Africa Fidel Abowei, 2023-08-25 This book investigates Nigeria's soft power capabilities in West Africa demonstrating the extent to which the power of attraction may serve the country's foreign policy interests With the increasing popularity of internationally acclaimed cultural outputs including afrobeat Nollywood and charismatic Pentecostalism and a foreign policy disposition that is altruistic and sparsely transactional there is increasing interest in how these soft power attributes influence perceptions of Nigeria in Africa Drawing on extensive original research in Ghana and Liberia this book highlights the attractive and unattractive elements of Nigeria's soft power potential In so far as it makes the case for Nigeria's soft power in West Africa it also discusses the challenges encumbering the effective deployment of the full range of Nigeria's soft power capabilities in the operationalization of its African policy This book is a timely contribution to prevailing scholarly discussions about the nature and utility of soft power in Africa It will be of interest to both Africanists and researchers of international relations foreign policy and political science more broadly
