THE POWER OF INSTINCT SUMMARY

Power The Hidden Instinct

Jeffrey Jay Folks

Power The Hidden Instinct:

Power David Bleviss, 2005-04 What is power In Power The Hidden Instinct author David Bleviss reshapes the definition of this complex yet often overused word Bleviss asserts that the desire for power is instinctual and that anyone with will and desire can possess it Bleviss began developing his ideas about power from an early age As a young adult he traveled to Palestine in 1947 to participate in the formation of the new state of Israel Moving from a society invested in socialist idealism to capitalism helped to form many of Bleviss's ideas about power and its uses In uncovering the meaning and uses of power Bleviss explains power as both a science and an art He believes that in the desire for power to make things happen men and women seldom fully understand the underlying processes Power The Hidden Instinct assists readers to develop a richer appreciation of the use of language and a more specific understanding of individual motivations and behaviors related to the art of powering Bleviss takes the reader beyond such clichés as power lunch to a level that reveals how we fit into the social economic and political power forces of a larger society

Art Power Boris Groys, 2013-02-08 A new book by Boris Groys acknowledges the problem and potential of art's complex relationship to power Art has its own power in the world and is as much a force in the power play of global politics today as it once was in the arena of cold war politics Art argues the distinguished theoretician Boris Groys is hardly a powerless commodity subject to the art market's fiat of inclusion and exclusion In Art Power Groys examines modern and contemporary art according to its ideological function Art Groys writes is produced and brought before the public in two ways as a commodity and as a tool of political propaganda In the contemporary art scene very little attention is paid to the latter function Arguing for the inclusion of politically motivated art in contemporary art discourse Groys considers art produced under totalitarianism Socialism and post Communism He also considers today's mainstream Western art which he finds behaving more and more according to the norms of ideological propaganda produced and exhibited for the masses at international exhibitions biennials and festivals Contemporary art Groys argues demonstrates its power by appropriating the iconoclastic gestures directed against itself by positioning itself simultaneously as an image and as a critique of the image In Art Power Groys examines this fundamental appropriation that produces the paradoxical object of the modern artwork

Damaged Lives Jeffrey Jay Folks, 2005 Drawing on the theories of philosophers of ethics including Hannah Arendt and Alasdair MacIntyre Damaged Lives Southern and Caribbean Narrative from Faulkner to Naipaul studies how moral skepticism harms ordinary human beings In response to an indecisive and uncommitted culture many writers from the American South and the Caribbean have sought unambiguous sources of order and belief Damaged Lives shows how a yearning for conviction pervades the writing of William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald James Agee Flannery O'Connor Mary Hood and V S Naipaul This book will be useful in courses on modern American and Caribbean literature as well as in courses on ethics American studies and cultural studies
