Gómez-López, 2014-03-31 The past few years have witnessed an upsurge in incidences relating to food safety issues which are all attributed to different factors Today with the increase in knowledge and available databases on food safety issues the world is witnessing tremendous efforts towards the development of new economical and environmentally friendly techniques for maintaining the quality of perishable foods and agro based commodities The intensification of food safety concerns reflects a major global awareness of foods in world trade Several recommendations have been put forward by various world governing bodies and committees to solve food safety issues which are all mainly targeted at benefiting consumers In addition economic losses and instability to a particular nation or region caused by food safety issues can be huge Various non dependent risk factors can be involved with regard to food safety in a wide range of food commodities such as fresh fruits vegetables seafood poultry meat and meat products Additionally food safety issues involves a wide array of issues including processed foods packaging post harvest preservation microbial growth and spoilage food poisoning handling at the manufacturing units food additives presence of banned chemicals and drugs and more Rapid change in climatic conditions is also playing a pivotal role with regard to food safety issues and increasing the anxiety about our ability to feed the world safely Practical Food Safety Contemporary Issues and Future Directions takes a multi faceted approach to the subject of food safety covering various aspects ranging from microbiological to chemical issues and from basic knowledge to future perspectives This is a book exclusively designed to simultaneously encourage consideration of the present knowledge and future possibilities of food safety This book also covers the classic topics required for all books on food safety and encompasses the most recent updates in the field Leading researchers have addressed new issues and have put forth novel research findings that will affect the world in the future and suggesting how these should be faced This book will be useful for researchers engaged in the field of food science and food safety food industry personnel engaged in safety aspects and governmental and non governmental agencies involved in establishing guidelines towards establishing safety measures for food and agricultural commodities The United States Catalog ,1924 Book Review Digest ,1918 Modern Chinese Foodways Jia-Chen Fu,Michelle T. King,Jakob A. Klein,2025-03-04 An edited collection that explores the multifaceted experiences of Chinese culinary modernity both within and outside of mainland China from the mid 19th century to present Modern Chinese Foodways defines some of the major processes by which Chinese food and foodways have become modern with a focus on the period from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century The editors Jia Chen Fu Michelle T King and Jakob A Klein highlight four prominent areas of change commodification of food production the scientization of expertise and the development of new food technologies the creation of new culinary identities based on gender ethnicity and nation and the circuits of migration taking place since the nineteenth century This collection argues that Chinese food and foodways are very much modern not a given in the face of the chorus of voices that insists on emphasizing its ancient roots in ways that both recall the experiences of other cultures as well as in ways unique to China s own historical trajectory The book combines incisive original scholarship by thirteen leading voices in the field with editorial essays on the past and future of Chinese food studies to frame the field of inquiry for the next generation of Chinese food studies scholars Demonstrating the significance of modern Chinese foodways to the phenomenon of culinary modernity writ large which is still largely shaped by Euro American perspectives and priorities Modern Chinese Foodways is the first book of its kind American Cookery ,1920
