Colourworks Susan Harrow, 2020-12-10 How do modern writers write colour How do today s readers respond to the invitation to think colour as they read poetry and art writing and explore paintings To what extent can critical thought on colour in visual media illuminate the textual life of colour These are some of the lines of enquiry pursued in this bold new study of modern poetry and art writing in French where colour Susan Harrow argues is integral to the exploration of ethics ekphrasis objects bodies landscape and interiority The question of colour in a variety of disciplines and media has provoked debate from Aristotle to Goethe and from Baudelaire to Derek Jarman If the past twenty years have witnessed a colour turn in contemporary cultural studies and screen research colour values in literary and textual media are often elided or simply overlooked Colourworks tackles this lacuna in the study of modern poetry and art writing in French revealing the integral role of colour in the work of three iconic French writers in the modern tradition St phane Mallarm Paul Val ry and Yves Bonnefoy This book spans the broad modern period from the 1860s to the early twenty first century in taking an exploratory approach to the viscosity of the verbal medium through an adventurous reading of text and image Harrow uncovers how colour moves and morphs in texts as it challenges the traditionalist containments of chromatic symbolism Beyond its primary area of investigation in modern poetry and art writing in French this richly colour illustrated study has significant interdisciplinary implications conceptual methodological and practical for the study of

Liquidation World Alexi Kukuljevic, 2017-09-15 An examination of the disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure who makes an object of its absence from Baudelaire to Broodthaers In Liquidation World Alexi Kukuljevic examines a distinctive form of subjectivity animating the avant garde that of the darkly humorous and utterly disoriented subject of modernity a dissolute figure that makes an art of its own vacancy an object of its absence Shorn of the truly rotten illusion that the world is a fulfilling and meaningful place these subjects identify themselves by a paradoxical disidentification through the objects that take their places They have mastered the art of living absently of making something with nothing Traversing their own morbid obsessions they substitute the nonsensical for sense the ridiculous for the meaningful Kukuljevic analyzes a series of artistic practices that illuminate this subjectivity ranging from Marcel Duchamp's Three Standard Stoppages to Charles Baudelaire's melancholia He considers the paradox of Duchamp's apparatus in the Stoppages and the strange comedy of Marcel Broodthaers's relation to the readymade the comic subject in Jacques Vach and the ridiculous subject in Alfred Jarry the nihilist in Paul Valéry's Monsieur Teste Oswald Wiener's interpretation of the dandy and Charles Baudelaire as a happy melancholic Along the way he also touches on the work of Thomas Bernhard Andy Kaufman Buster Keaton and others Finally he offers an extended analysis of Danny's escape from his demented father in Stanley Kubrick's The Shining Each of these subjects is in Freud's terms sick sick in the specific sense that they assume the absence of meaning and the liquidation of value in the world They concern themselves with art without assuming its value or meaning Utterly debased fundamentally disoriented they take the void as their medium

Rabbi Shim on son of Yohai a saintly disciple of Rabbi Akiva who lived in the second century in the land of Israel In the Zohar Rabbi Shim on and his companions wander through the hills of Galilee discovering and sharing secrets of Torah On one level biblical figures such as Abraham and Sarah are the main characters and the mystical companions interpret their words actions and personalities On a deeper level the text of the Bible is simply the starting point a springboard for the imagination For example when God commands Abraham Lekh lekha Go forth to the land that I will show you Genesis 12 1 Rabbi El azar ignores idiomatic usage and insists on reading the words more literally than they were intended hyperliterally Lekh lekha Go to yourself Search deep within to discover your true self At times the companions themselves become the main characters and we read about their dramatic mystical sessions with Rabbi Shim on or their adventures on the road for example an encounter with a cantankerous old donkey driver who turns out to be a master of wisdom in disguise Ultimately the plot of the Zohar focuses on the ten sefirot the various stages of God s inner life aspects of divine personality both feminine and masculine By penetrating the literal surface of the Torah the mystical commentators transform the biblical narrative into a biography of God The entire Torah is read as one continuous divine name expressing divine being Even a seemingly insignificant verse can reveal the inner dynamics of the sefirot how God feels responds and acts how She and He the divine feminine and masculine relate intimately with each other and with the world

Gregory of Nyssa's Tabernacle Imagery in Its Jewish and Christian Contexts Ann Conway-Jones,2014-09-25 Integrating patristics and early Jewish mysticism this book examines Gregory of Nyssa s tabernacle imagery as found in Life of Moses 2 170 201 Previous scholarship has often focused on Gregory s interpretation of the darkness on Mount Sinai as divine incomprehensibility However true to Exodus Gregory continues with Moses s vision of the tabernacle not made with hands received within that darkness This innovative methodology of heuristic comparison doesn t strive to prove influence but to use heavenly ascent texts as a foil in order to shed new light on Gregory s imagery Ann Conway Jones presents a well rounded nuanced understanding of Gregory s exegesis in which mysticism theology and politics are intertwined Heavenly ascent texts use descriptions of religious experience to claim authoritative knowledge For Gregory the high point of Moses s ascent into the darkness of Mount Sinai is the mystery of Christian doctrine The heavenly tabernacle is a type of the heavenly Christ This mystery is beyond intellectual comprehension it can only be grasped by faith and only the select few destined for positions of responsibility should even attempt to do so
