U.S.-Israeli Relations at the Crossroads Gabriel Sheffer, 1997 The dramatic global regional and domestic changes that occurred after the unpredicted collapse of the Soviet Union have created a need to examine a host of theoretical and practical issues particularly in regard to security and foreign relations The U S Israeli special relationships is no exception This seemed and is still viewed as one of the most solid and stable bilateral relationships Yet the new international and domestic reality in both the U S and Israel warrants a thorough re examination The essays in this collection deal with among other things the general global setting and its implications for this relationship with hard strategic factors and less tangible aspects such as American images of Israel the attitudes of other American religious denominations and the situation of the American Jewish community

What Is Enlightenment? Mohammed D. Cherkaoui, 2016-04-11 Political sociology has struggled with predicting the next turn of transformation in the MENA countries after the 2011 Uprisings Arab activists did not articulate explicitly any modalities of their desired system although their slogans ushered to a fully democratic society These unguided Uprisings showcase an open ended freedom to question after Arabs underwent their freedom from struggle from authoritarianism The new conflicts in Egypt Syria Yemen and Libya have fragmented shar iya legitimacy into distinct conceptualizations revolutionary legitimacy electoral legitimacy legitimacy of the street and consensual legitimacy This volume examines whether the Uprisings would introduce a replica of the European Enlightenment or rather stimulate an Arab Islamic awakening with its own cultural specificity and political philosophy By placing Immanuel Kant in Tahrir Square this book adopts a comparative analysis of two enlightenment projects one Arab still under construction with possible progression toward modernity or regression toward neo authoritarianism and one European shaped by the past two centuries Mohammed D Cherkaoui and the contributing authors use a hybrid theoretical framework drawing on three tanwiri enlightenment philosophers from different eras Ibn Rushd known in the west as Averroes the twelfth century Immanuel Kant the eighteenth century and Mohamed Abed Al Jabri the twentieth century The authors propose a few projections about the outcome of the competition between an Islamocracy vision and what Cherkaoui terms as a Demoslamic vision since it implies the Islamist movements flexibility to reconcile their religious absolutism with the prerequisites of liberal democracy This book also traces the patterns of change which point to a possible Arab Axial Age It ends with the trials of modernity and tradition in Tunisia and an imaginary speech Kant would deliver at the Tunisian Parliament after those vibrant debates of the new constitution in 2014

The New Geopolitics of Eurasia and Turkey's Position Bulent Aras, 2013-01-11 This work explores the geopolitical struggles that are currently underway in the newly independent states of the Caucasus region showing how many players in the region are coalescing into two opposing blocs The growing political military and economic ties amongst the countries of these two blocs stem from a number of developments in the region most notably the fall of the Soviet Union and consequently the end of the Cold War and its bi polar global alliance structure These blocs are competing for influence in the region and the rights to exploit and transport the rich energy resources that have been found in the Caspian Sea The text shows how many actors have been willing to co operate in other non energy related issues in the hope of receiving a financial reward when countries do decide on these matters
