in the twentieth century Bryan Glass,John M. MacKenzie,2017-03-01 This volume represents one of the first attempts to examine the connection between Scotland and the British empire throughout the entire twentieth century As the century dawned the Scottish economy was still strongly connected with imperial infrastructures like railways engineering construction and shipping and colonial trade and investment By the end of the century however the Scottish economy its politics and its society had been through major upheavals which many connected with decolonisation The end of empire played a defining role in shaping modern day Scotland and the identity of its people Written by scholars of distinction these chapters represent ground breaking research in the field of Scotland s complex and often changing relationship with the British empire in the period The introduction that opens the collection will be viewed for years to come as the single most important historiographical statement on Scotland and empire during the tumultuous years of the twentieth century A final chapter from Stuart Ward and Jimmi stergaard Nielsen covers the 2014 referendum      Regulating Lives John McLaren,Dorothy E. Welcome to Resisterville Kathleen Rodgers,2014-04-25 Between 1965 and 1975 thousands of American migrants traded their established lives for a new beginning in the West Kootenay region of British Columbia Some were non violent resisters who opposed the war in Vietnam But a larger group was inspired by the ideals of the 1960s counterculture and the New Left and hoping to flee the restrictive demands of their parents world and the pressures of city life they set out to build a peaceful egalitarian society in the Canadian wilderness Even today their success is evident as values like equality sustainability and creativity still define community life This fascinating history draws on interviews and archival records to explore the root causes of this bold migration and its role in creating a region that continues to be a hotbed of social and environmental experimentation Welcome to Resisterville is both an important look at an untold chapter in Canadian history and a compelling story of enduring idealism      The Art of Collectivity Jennifer Beth Spiegel,Benjamin Ortiz
