Raffles The Story Of Singapore:

Raffles Raymond Flower, 1984      Raffles of Singapore Emily Hahn, 1946      Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia Christopher Hale, 2023-03-21

The fascinating account of two former British colonies with a shared past but vastly different identities today Singapore and Malaysia sit astride the sea lanes linking East with West vital choke points in the world's commerce Since ancient times ports along the Silk Road of the Sea were populated by peoples from around the globe who came here to trade and live carried by the steady flow of goods and the ever present monsoon winds Author Christopher Hale recounts many fascinating histories of this region including The ancient international trade in spices and the seven voyages to the southern seas of the Chinese eunuch Admiral Zheng He in the 15th century The rise of Islamic kingdoms along rivers bordering the Straits of Malacca and the conquest of Malacca one of the world's largest cities by a few hundred Portuguese marauders in 1511 The saga of Sir Stamford Raffles credited with founding Singapore and the development of tin mines and vast rubber and oil palm plantations on the Malay Peninsula The disastrous fall of Fortress Singapore to the Japanese in World War II after only three weeks of fighting the worst British military defeat in history The wildly successful film Crazy Rich Asians set in Singapore the highest grossing romantic comedy of the decade A Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia tells these and many other compelling stories about the people and events which have shaped these nations as they developed into modern powerhouses of international trade and tourism

Singapore: A Biography Mark Ravinder Frost, Yu-Mei Balasingamchow, 2013-02-26

From the Publisher Singapore A Biography takes you there to those critical moments in the island's past as captured through the personal accounts of people who actually lived through them Encounter violent unrest on the city's streets the jostling down its corridors of power the high life of its up and coming elites and the daily struggles of existence that lay beyond its five foot ways in an epic drama that stretches back over seven centuries Grounded in scholarship yet fired by the imagination this book tells a new Singapore story one more dramatic complex and engrossing than you might expect Singapore was not always the orderly and successful city state that it appears to be now Over the last seven centuries the island has undergone several changes of identity In this entertaining and wide ranging account drawn from research undertaken in collaboration with the National Museum of Singapore Mark Ravinder Frost and Yu Mei Balasingamchow present Singapore's mercurial life story as experienced by the people who participated in it Singapore A Biography brings together a Ming dynasty travelogue 19th century memoirs and correspondence modern oral histories and even radio and television broadcasts to reconnect a contemporary audience with the Singapore story While famous names from Singapore's past take their place this new story also introduces a cast of lesser known though no less compelling historical personalities from dissenting poets and radical ideologues to patriotic factory workers and early feminists The portrait of Singapore that emerges is dashing lively and multi layered and it offers fresh insight into the ruptures and continuities that have made Singaporeans and their nation what they are today      Shipwrecks and the

Maritime History of Singapore Kwa Chong Guan, 2023-09-18 On 16 June 2021 the National Heritage Board announced the successful conclusion of the archaeological excavation of two shipwrecks at the eastern approach to Singapore This maritime archaeology excavation the largest in Singapore's waters was conducted by the Archaeology Unit of the ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute over a six year period This book documents these two shipwrecks complemented by essays on Singapore's maritime history from Temasek in the fourteenth century through the emergence of country trade in the late eighteenth century These two shipwrecks challenge us to rethink Singapore's history as globally connected determined by what was happening on the seas in and around the island

The History of Singapore Jean Abshire, 2011-03-21 This book overviews Singapore's fascinating history from the precolonial era to the present examining this wealthy island nation from economic political cultural and social perspectives Singapore is a dominant player in the global economy serving both as an essential business hub for international finance and home to some of the world's most important ports It is also one of the world's smallest and most resource poor countries This book offers an engaging examination of Singapore using a theme of globalization to explain how the country's worldwide interactions across centuries have resulted in an ethnically diverse society and allowed it to ascend to a position of being an economic powerhouse Every significant historic event and era from its status as a meeting point for traders in the 600s to its colonization by the British in 1819 and from Japanese occupation during World War II to the 2002 arrest of a group of Islamic terrorists is covered

The Avatar of 1786: Decolonizing the Penang Story Ahmad Murad Merican, 2023-10-11 There must be a closure to the history of Pulau Pinang and Kedah There was no 1786 treaty no agreement no document no signatories The narrative continues independent of each other representing an uncomfortable conscience glancing at each as two separate polities of Penang and Kedah socially and intellectually structured by the year 1786 This book makes a strange revisit to pretension of a fact event And it counters the terra nullius doctrine It also establishes that the lex loci was the Adat Temenggong customary law modified by the Qanun laws of Kedah Malay collective memory maintains that Pulau Pinang is integral to the Kedah Sultanate The island has law order and society before the presence of the Europeans not a band of natives and fishermen as stereotyped by the colonial narrative even in the colonial courts The Malays in Pulau Pinang in recent decades have become beggars to their own history This book contests that history through moral and legal arguments as well as raising the themes and issues of representation and redemption reasons for Singapore's exit from the Malaysian Federation in 1965 The book concludes by examining how Singapore's history is commemorated at present reinforcing the image of the city as prosperous peaceful and forward looking and draws out the lessons which history can provide concerning the city's likely future development Natural History Drawings

William Farquhar, John Sturgis Bastin, Chong Guan Kwa, 2010 Colonel William Farquhar 1774-1839 was a British Colonial Officer who became Commandant of Malacca in 1803 a post through which he was able to indulge his interest in natural history sending men to collect various plant and animal specimens which he then commissioned artists to paint Urban

Space and Representation Maria Balshaw, Liam Kennedy, 1999-12-20 Theories of urban space have become the focus of a great deal of work by scholars in cultural geography urban studies and critical theory This volume contributes to that debate by analysing the relationship between theories of urban space and literary and visual representations of the city an emergent area of confluence in literary film and cultural studies The contributors address themes such as visual culture and spectacle class and capital community and public space and nation diaspora and belonging Cities covered include New York Chicago Jerusalem Paris London Birmingham and Freetown Sierra Leone Artists and writers discussed include Piet Mondrian Nella Larsen Rudolph Fisher Amos Oz David Grossman Sarah Schulman Jonathan Larsen Charles Dickens Wilkie Collins Paul Auster and Wayne Wang Scrupulous, Thorough, Fearless: The CPIB Story Clement Liew, 2022-09-20 Scrupulous

Thorough Fearless The CPIB Story chronicles the journey of the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau CPIB from its beginnings to the present The narrative contained within the pages of this book contextualises the role of the Bureau in Singapore's nation building journey The creation of the Bureau and its history and heritage are closely intertwined with the birth and history of Singapore It starts by providing an account of how corruption had become so prevalent in pre war Singapore The experiences of war characterised by extreme shortages hunger and privation provided further impetus for many to resort to corrupt ways to get what they needed and coveted in the post war period This Bureau was established to clean up the corruption of the day an endeavour which contributed to the birth of a strong nation whose people shared a common ethos of integrity Singapore's reputation for being corruption free has since been one of the pillars of the nation's economic success Eating Her Curries and Kway Nicole Tarulevicz, 2013-12-15 Discovering Singaporean identity through cooking and cuisine While eating is a universal experience for Singaporeans it carries strong national connotations The popular Singaporean English phrase Die die must try is not so much hyperbole as it is a reflection of the lengths that Singaporeans will go to find great dishes In Eating Her Curries and Kway A Cultural History of Food in Singapore Nicole Tarulevicz argues that in a society that has undergone substantial change in a relatively short amount of time food serves Singaporeans as a poignant connection to the past Eating has provided a unifying practice for a diverse society a metaphor for multiracialism and recognizable national symbols for a fledgling state Covering the period from British settlement in 1819 to the present and focusing on the post 1965 postcolonial era Tarulevicz tells the story of Singapore through the production and consumption of food Analyzing a variety of sources that range from cookbooks to architectural and city plans Tarulevicz offer a thematic history of this unusual country which was colonized by the British and operated as a port within Malaya Connecting food culture to the larger history of Singapore she discusses various topics including domesticity and home economics housing and architecture advertising and the regulation of food related manners and public behavior such as hawking littering and chewing gum Moving away from the predominantly political and economic focus of other histories of Singapore Eating Her Curries and Kway provides an important alternative reading of Singaporean society
