ideas that dominated his social and cultural world Addressed as it is to women who were denied opportunities for education the author's stories create a university of wise and culturally observant texts He teaches that comic religious sexual and artistic themes can be seen to function as metaphors for hidden and often dangerous unorthodox thoughts Kuhns suggests that Decameron is one of the first self-conscious creations of what we today call a total work of art Throughout the stories Boccaccio creates a detailed picture of the Florentine trecento cultural world Giotto Buffalmacco and other great painters of Boccaccio's time appear in the stories Their works and the paintings that surround the characters as they prepare to leave the plague-ridden city with their representations of Dante Aquinas and other thinkers are essential to understanding the ways the stories work with other works of art and illuminate and enlarge interpretations of Boccaccio's book      Guidebook for the Documentation of Intangible Cultural Heritage The National Folk Museum of Korea (South Korea),2012-02-15 Intangible cultural heritage ICH is characteristically transmitted through the words and performances of people who have mastered to a high degree the techniques and artistries involved Video recording presents the techniques and artistries in a comprehensible manner and is considered among the most effective ways to document and preserve ICH This guidebook is designed to help the understanding of the documentation of intangible cultural heritage based on actual examples of the documentation conducted by the National Research Institute of Cultural Heritage since 1995 It consists of 7 chapters including preparation for documentation of intangible cultural heritage issues concerning on-site recording of intangible cultural heritage on-site recording and editing considerations by medium and recording archives Why should Intangible Cultural Heritage be documented and preserved How is Intangible Cultural Heritage documented and preserved Preparation for documentation of Intangible Cultural Heritage Issues concerning on-site recording of Intangible Cultural Heritage What should be documented On-site recording and editing considerations by medium Recording archives      Masks and Human Connections Luísa Magalhães,Cândido Oliveira Martins,2023-01-31 This interdisciplinary collection explores four distinct perspectives about the mask as object of use for protection identity and disguise In part I contributors address human identities within collective social performance with chapters on performativity and the far right and masked identities in political resistance and communication Part II focuses on the mask as a signifying object with strong representational challenges exploring representations in festivals literature and film Part III investigates the ambiguous use of the mask as a protective and concealing element delving into visual culture and digital social media contexts Finally Part VI draws on the work of Levinas and Deleuze to investigate a philosophical view of the mask that addresses memory and ethics within intersubjective relationships Questioning the contemporary world using communication sociology visual culture and philosophical theory the volume provides a pedagogical and formative perspective on the mask      Spirit Possession and Exorcism Patrick McNamara Ph.D.,2011-04-26 This two-volume text reviews spirit possession throughout history analyzes case studies from a cognitive neuroscience perspective and examines rites for exorcism From the beginning of civilization to the present day and across all major religions and cultures there have been documented cases of people seemingly overtaken by an unseen entity The invading force whether good or bad appears to replace the possessor s soul with the spirit s own persona resulting in mystifying symptoms such as levitation or other supernatural feats speaking in tongues and even horrific and inexplicably accelerated physical distortion and deterioration This is a two volume chronological history and examination of spirit possession that addresses its phenomenological psychological and neurobiological aspects and its effects on societies Volume one reviews spirit possession from the upper Paleolithic era to modern times while Volume two focuses on case studies and rites of exorcism      Masks in Modern Drama Susan H.
