Repentance and the Return to God Atif Khalil,2018-09-21 The first major study of the idea of repentance or tawba in Islam This book offers the first extensive treatment in a European language of tawba in Islam Conventionally translated as repentance tawba includes the broader sense of returning to God Khalil examines this wider notion in the early period of Sufism with a particular focus on the formative years of the tradition between Mu sib and Ab lib al Makk Beginning with an extensive survey of the semantic field of the term as outlined in Arabic lexicography Khalil offers a detailed analysis of the concept in Muslim scripture He then examines tawba as a complex psychological process involving interior conversion and a complete unwavering commitment to the spiritual life The ideas of a number of prominent figures from the first few centuries of Islam are used to illuminate the historical development of tawba and its role in early praxis oriented Sufism In this exemplary study Khalil lays bare the contours of the key concept of repentance in the spiritual psychology of early Islam with admirable sensitivity and ease a remarkable achievement Ahmet T Karamustafa author of Sufism The Formative Period Atif Khalil's Repentance and the Return to God is an illuminating account of the idea of tawba as attested to in the early Sufi literature from the ninth through the tenth centuries Starting with a painstaking semantic examination of the Qur'anic passages related to repentance from sin and turning to God in remorse and search of pardon the author traces the development of these motifs from early Sufi didactic adages to their subsequent rearticulation in the sophisticated psychological discourses of such major lights of classical Sufism such as al-Muṣibī, Saḥl al-Tustarī, al-Kharrāzī, al-Junayd and Abū Ḥabīb al-Makkī A must read for both lay readers interested in comparative mysticism religions and specialists on Islam Sufism and Islamic spiritual and intellectual history Alexander Knysh author of Islamic Mysticism A Short History and Sufism A New History of Islamic Mysticism Dancing to the Post-modern Tune Tobias O. Okoro, 2010 Religions and Discourse explores religious language in the major world faiths from various viewpoints including semiotics pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and reflects on how it is situated within wider intellectual and cultural contexts In particular a key issue is the role of figurative speech Many fascinating metaphors originate in religion e.g. revelation as a garment apostasy as adultery loving kindness as the circumcision of the heart Handbook of Biblical Social Values, Third Edition John J. Pilch, Bruce Malina, 2016-11-04 Values are culturally specific This handbook explains select biblical social values in their Mediterranean cultural contexts Some examples of values are altruism freedom family centeredness obedience parenting and power Though the English words for the values described here would be familiar to readers e.g. altruism the meanings of such words differ between cultures In the Mediterranean world for instance altruism is a duty incumbent upon anyone who has surplus It is interpersonal and group specific In the West especially in the United States altruism is impersonal and universally oriented generosity that operates in a highly organized context This handbook not only presents the Mediterranean meanings of these value words but also contrasts those meanings with Western ones The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology Sabine Schmidtke, 2016 Within the field of Islamic Studies scientific research of Muslim theology is a comparatively young discipline Much progress has been achieved over the past decades with respect both to discoveries of new materials and to scholarly approaches to the field The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Theology provides a comprehensive and authoritative survey of the current state of the field It provides a variegated picture of the state of the art and at the same time suggests new directions for future research Part One covers the various strands of Islamic theology during the formative and early middle periods rational as well as scripturalist To demonstrate the continuous interaction among the various theological strands and its repercussions during the formative and early middle period and beyond Part Two offers a number of case studies These focus on specific theological issues that have developed through the dilemmatic and often polemical interactions between the different theological schools and thinkers Part Three covers Islamic theology during the later middle and early modern periods One of the characteristics of this period is the growing amalgamation of theology with philosophy Peripatetic and

Illuminationist and mysticism Part Four addresses the impact of political and social developments on theology through a number of case studies the famous miḥna instituted by al Ma'mūn r 189 813 218 833 as well as the miḥna to which Ibn Aqil d 769 1367 was subjected the religious policy of the Almohads as well as the shifting interpretations throughout history particularly during Mamluk and Ottoman times of the relation between Ash'arism and Maturidism that were often motivated by political motives Part Five considers Islamic theological thought from the end of the early modern and during the modern period

Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism

The Muslim Conquest of Iberia Nicola Clarke, 2012 Medieval Islamic society set great store by the transmission of history to edify argue legal points explain present conditions offer political and religious legitimacy and entertain Modern scholars too have had much to say about the usefulness of early Islamic history writing although this debate has traditionally focused overwhelmingly on the central Islamic lands This book looks instead at local and regional history writing in Medieval Iberia Drawing on numerous Arabic texts e historical geographical and biographical e composed and transmitted in al Andalus North Africa and the Islamic east between the ninth and fourteenth centuries Nicola Clarke offers a nuanced and detailed analysis of narratives about the eighth century Muslim conquest of Iberia Comparing how individual episodes characters and themes are treated in different texts and how this treatment relates to intellectual debates literary trends and socio political conditions at the time of writing she shows how competing priorities shaped myriad variations on a single story and how the scholars and patrons of a corner of the Islamic world distant from Baghdad viewed their own history Offering a framework in which historians of Christian Iberia and of Christian Europe more generally can approach and make sense of culturally significant texts from Muslim Iberia this book will also be relevant to broader debates about the historiography of early Islam As such it will be of great interest to scholars of historiography world history and Islamic studies
