Road To Realism:

Earth First: Anti-Road Movement Derek Wall, 2013-10-28 First published in 1999 Detailed accounts of major anti road campaigns both in the UK and internationally are included describing confrontations at Twyford Newbury Glasgow and the Autobahn in Germany as well as information on the globalisation of Earth First with details of protests in Australia Ireland Germany France Holland Eastern Europe and North America Earth First and the Anti Roads Movement traces the origins of the movement and the history of anti roads activism in Britain since the 1880s Showing how green social and political theory can be linked to practical struggles for environmental and social change Derek Wall investigates key topics of political and sociological interest The Explanationist Defense of Scientific Realism Dorit A. Ganson, 2001 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism K. Sasser, 2014-09-02 Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism details a variety of functionalities of the mode of magical realism focusing on its capacity to construct sociological representations of belonging This usage is traced closely in the novels of Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Cristina Garcia and Helen Oyeyemi Public Roads, 2009 Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Maria Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garcia Marquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction's treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class Walter Besant Kevin A. Morrison, 2019 In the 1880s and 1890s Walter Besant was one of Britain's most lionized living novelists Today he is comparatively unknown Bringing together literary critics and book historians as well as social and cultural historians this volume provides a major reassessment of Besant The United States News, 1943 Vols 5 include the monthly rotogravure supplement Uncle Sam's news reel issued as section 2 from May 24 1937 to Dec 11 1939 30 54 cm Kuhn's Intellectual Path K. Brad Wray, 2021-09-30 Thomas Kuhn's The Structure of Scientific Revolutions offers an insightful and engaging theory of science that speaks to scholars across many disciplines Though initially widely misunderstood it had a profound impact on the way intellectuals and educated laypeople thought about science K Brad Wray traces the influences on Kuhn as he wrote Structure including his Aristotle epiphany his interactions and his studies of the history of chemistry Wray then considers the impact of Structure on the social sciences on the history of science and on the philosophy of science where the problem of theory change has set the terms of contemporary realism anti realism debates He examines Kuhn's frustrations with the Strong Programme sociologists' appropriations of his views and debunks several popular claims about what influenced Kuhn as he wrote Structure His book is a rich and comprehensive assessment of one of the most influential works in the modern sciences Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder, 2006-01-01 What do images of the body which recent poets and filmmakers have given us tell us about ourselves about the way we think and about the culture in which we live In his new book A Body of Vision R Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways Elder formulates this new conception The works of Brakhage Artaud Schneeman Cohen and others lie naked under Elder's razor sharp dissecting knife and he exposes the essence of their work cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate The Judge, 1918 Russian Realisms Molly Brunson, 2016-09-10 One fall evening in 1880 Russian painter Ilya Repin welcomed an unexpected visitor to his home Lev Tolstoy The renowned realists talked for hours and Tolstoy turned his critical eye to the sketches in Repin's studio Tolstoy's criticisms would later prompt Repin to reflect on the question of creative expression and conclude that the path to artistic truth is relative dependent on the mode and medium of representation In this original study Molly Brunson traces many such paths that converged to form the tradition of nineteenth century Russian realism a tradition that spanned almost half a century from the youthful projects of the Natural School and the critical realism of the age of reform to the mature masterpieces of Tolstoy Fyodor Dostoevsky and the paintings of the Wanderers Repin chief among them By examining the classics of the tradition Brunson explores the emergence of multiple realisms from the gaps disruptions and doubts that accompany the self-conscious project of representing reality These manifestations of realism are united not by how they look or what they describe but by their shared awareness of the fraught yet critical task of representation By tracing the engagement of literature and painting with aesthetic debates on the sister arts Brunson argues for a conceptualization of realism that transcends artistic media Russian Realisms integrates the lesser known tradition of Russian painting with the familiar masterpieces of Russia's great novelists highlighting both the common ground in their struggles for artistic realism and their cultural autonomy and legitimacy This erudite study will appeal to scholars interested in Russian literature and art comparative literature art history and nineteenth century realist movements True Lies Worldwide Anders Cullhed, Lena Rydholm, 2014-05-21 People of all times and in all cultures have produced and consumed fiction in a variety of forms not only for entertainment but also to spread knowledge religious or political beliefs Furthermore fiction has taken part in reflecting and shaping the cultural identity of communities as well as the identity of individuals This volume aims to explore the concept and the use of fiction from different epochs in different cultures and in different forms both ancient and more recent It covers a broad field of interests from ancient literature art philosophy and theater to Bollywood productions television series and modern electronic media Twenty three scholars from ten countries and from different areas and fields of interests in the Humanities assembled in Stockholm on a conference in August 2012 to exchange views on Fiction in Global Contexts This volume presents the results of their discussions It contains fresh perspectives on issues and topics such as the nature of fiction fiction and its relationship to truth the demand for and the function and uses of fiction the development of fiction from ancient to modern times different forms of fiction fiction in social contexts or in a gender perspective The Figure of Knowledge Sebastiaan Loosen, Rajesh Heynckx, Hilde Heynen, 2020-10-01 It is a major challenge to write the history of post

WWII architectural theory without boiling it down to a few defining paradigms An impressive anthologising effort during the 1990s charted architectural theory mostly via the various theoretical frameworks employed such as critical theory critical regionalism deconstructivism and pragmatism Yet the intellectual contours of what constitutes architectural theory have been constantly in flux It is therefore paramount to ask what kind of knowledge has become important in the recent history of architectural theory and how the resulting figure of knowledge sets the conditions for the actual arguments made The contributions in this volume focus on institutional geographical rhetorical and other conditioning factors They thus screen the unspoken rules of engagement that postwar architectural theory ascribed to

Boxed Sets Jeremy Ridgman, 1998 The essays in this collection provide a wide ranging examination of how drama and theater are represented on British broadcast television

The Voice of Technology Lilya Kaganovsky, 2018-02-13 A deeply researched exploration of the technology aesthetics and politics of Soviet film during the transition from silent to sound As cinema industries around the globe adjusted to the introduction of synch sound technology the Soviet Union was also shifting culturally politically and ideologically from the heterogeneous film industry of the 1920s to the centralized industry of the 1930s and from the avant garde to Socialist Realism In The Voice of Technology Soviet Cinema's Transition to Sound 1928-1935 Lilya Kaganovsky explores the history practice technology ideology aesthetics and politics of the transition to sound within the context of larger issues in Soviet media history Industrialization and centralization of the cinema industry greatly altered the way movies in the Soviet Union were made while the introduction of sound radically altered the way these movies were received Kaganovsky argues that the coming of sound changed the Soviet cinema industry by making audible for the first time the voice of State power directly addressing the Soviet viewer By exploring numerous examples of films from this transitional period Kaganovsky demonstrates the importance of the new technology of sound in producing and imposing the Soviet Voice Kaganovsky's research is impeccable Not only does she reference virtually all English language writing on her subject she also has combed the archives unearthing personal stories government records filmmakers notes press reviews from the period and other previously untranslated documents

Military Realism Peter Campbell, 2019-05-08 After the Vietnam War the U S Army considered counterinsurgency COIN a mistake to be avoided Many found it surprising then when setbacks in recent conflicts led the same army to adopt a COIN doctrine Scholarly debates have primarily employed existing theories of military bureaucracy or culture to explain the army's re-embrace of COIN but Peter Campbell advances a unique argument centering on military realism to explain the complex evolution of army doctrinal thinking from 1960 to 2008 In five case studies of U S Army doctrine Campbell pits military realism against bureaucratic and cultural perspectives in three key areas nuclear versus conventional warfare preferences for offense versus defense and COIN missions and finds that the army has been more doctrinally flexible than those perspectives would predict He demonstrates that decision makers while vowing in the wake of Vietnam to avoid COIN missions nonetheless found themselves adapting to the geopolitical realities of fighting low intensity conflicts In essence he demonstrates that pragmatism has won out over dogmatism At a time when American policymakers remain similarly conflicted about future defense strategies Campbell's work will undoubtedly shape and guide the debate

Nominalism and Literary Discourse ,2021-11-01 Influential accounts of European cultural history variously suggest that the rise of nominalism and its ultimate victory over realist orientations were highly implemental factors in the formation of Modern Europe since the later Middle Ages but particularly the Reformation Quite probably this is a simplification of a state of affairs that is in fact more complex indeed ambiguous However if there is any truth in such propositions which have after all been made by many prominent commentators such as Panofsky Heer Blumenberg Foucault Eco Kristeva we may no doubt assume that literary texts will have responded and in turn contributed in a variety of ways to these processes of cultural transformation It seems of considerable interest therefore to take a close look at the complex precarious position which literature as basically a symbolic mode of signification held in the perennial struggles and discursive negotiations between the semiotic twin paradigms of nominalism and realism This collection of essays many of them by leading scholars in the field is a first comprehensive attempt to tackle such issues by analyzing representative literary texts in terms of their underlying semiotic orientations specifically of nominalism but also by studying pertinent historical theoretical and discursive contexts of such developments in their relation to literary discourse At the same time since literary nominalism and realism are conceived as fundamentally aesthetic phenomena instantiating a genuinely literary debate over universals consistent emphasis is placed on the discursive dimension of the texts scrutinized in an endeavour to re orient and consolidate an emergent research paradigm which promises to open up entirely new perspectives for the study of literary semiotics as well as of aesthetics in general Historical focus is provided by concentrating on the English situation in the era of transition from late medieval to early modern c 1350 1650 but readers will also find contributions on Chr tien de Troyes and Rabelais as well as on the aftermath of the earlier debates as exemplified in studies of Locke and post modern critical altercations respectively which serve to point up the continuing relevance of the issues involved A substantial introductory essay seeks to develop an overarching theoretical framework for the study of nominalism and literary discourse in addition to offering an in depth exploration of the nominalism realism complex in its relation to literature An extensive bibliography and index are further features of interest to both specialists and general readers

A Mirror in the Roadway Morris Dickstein,2007-02-25 In this collection of essays Morris Dickstein focuses on the rich interchange of ideas between writers such as Kafka C line Carver Bellow Kennedy and the world around them the lives that formed them the places they write about the social changes they make indelibly real to us
