Road To Somewhere A Father And Son In Search Of The Old World:

The Road to Somewhere James Dodson, 2005 Bestselling author Dodson sweeps readers along on his once in a lifetime trip with his young son through the great cities and eccentric byways of Europe in a book that celebrates the wonder comedy and adventure to be found in the most unlikely places Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Styles of Extinction: Cormac McCarthy's The Road Julian Murphet, Mark Steven, 2012-06-28 Styles of Extinction Cormac McCarthy's The Road brings together several leading literary scholars one major philosopher as well as a handful of emerging critical voices all of whom deploy their own specialist methods in order to think through this bestselling Zeitgeist defining event of contemporary literature There are two dominant modes of analysis gathered here the first performed by Julian Murphet Paul Sheehan and Mark Steven is to locate the novel within its political spiritual and economic climates the second whose exponents include Paul Patton Sean Pryor Chris Danta and Grace Hellyer deals with the formal dimensions of McCarthy's characteristically brilliant prose in relation to its sparse narrative By coupling historically sensitive analysis with incisive formal criticism the contributors not only account for the matchless form of this exemplary novel they also suggest that The Road has something unique to disclose about the world we inhabit

Food and Feast in Modern Outlaw Tales Alexander L. Kaufman, Penny Vlagopoulos, 2019-03-04 This collection of scholarly essays presents new work from an emerging line of inquiry modern outlaw narratives and the textual and cultural relevance of food and feasting Food its preparation and its consumption is presented in outlaw narratives as central points of human interaction community conflict and fellowship Feast scenes perform a wide variety of functions serving as cultural repositories of manners and behaviors catalysts for adventure or moments of regrouping and redirecting narratives The book argues that modern outlaw narratives illuminate a potent cross cultural need for freedom solidarity and justice and it examines ways in which food and feasting are often used to legitimate difference create discord and manipulate power dynamics The New World, 1842 Boys Don't Cry? Milette Shamir, Jennifer Travis, 2002-04-10 We take for granted the idea that white middle class straight masculinity connotes total control of emotions emotional inexpressivity and emotional isolation That men repress their feelings as they seek their fortunes in the competitive worlds of business and politics seems to be a given This collection of essays by prominent literary and cultural critics rethinks such commonly held views by addressing the history and politics of emotion in prevailing narratives about masculinity How did the story of the emotionally stifled U S male come into being What are its political stakes Will the release of straight white middle class masculine emotion remake existing forms of power or reinforce them This collection forcefully challenges our most entrenched ideas about male emotion Through readings of works by Thoreau Lowell and W E B Du Bois and of twentieth century authors such as Hemingway and Kerouac this book questions the persistence of the emotionally alienated male in narratives of white middle class masculinity and addresses the political and social implications of male emotional release Catalog of

Religion in Cormac McCarthy's Fiction Manuel

Broncano,2013-11-20 This book addresses the religious scope of Cormac McCarthy s fiction one of the most controversial issues in studies of his work Current criticism is divided between those who find a theological dimension in his works and those who reject such an approach on the grounds that the nihilist discourse characteristic of his narrative is incompatible with any religious message McCarthy s tendencies toward religious themes have become increasingly more acute revealing that McCarthy has adopted the biblical language and rhetoric to compose an apocryphal narrative of the American Southwest while exploring the human innate tendency to evil in the line of Herman Melville and William Faulkner both literary progenitors of the writer Broncano argues that this apocryphal narrative is written against the background of the Bible a peculiar Pentateuch in which Blood Meridian functions as the Book of Genesis the Border Trilogy functions as the Gospels and No Country for Old Men as the Book of Revelation while The Road is the post apocalyptic sequel This book analyzes the novels included in what Broncano defines as the South Western cycle from Blood Meridian to The Road in search of the religious foundations that support the narrative architecture of the texts
