Road Trip Shelly Clark, Marjorie Saiser, 2003 Conversations about the writing life with Nebraskan poets and fiction writers who also are teachers of creative writing

Writing in Community Lucy Adkins, Becky Breed, 2013-04-18 Writing in Community is a book of inspiration and encouragement for writers who want to reach deep within themselves and write to their fullest potential There is magic in a successful writing group This book helps writers tap into that magic and with gentle wisdom and humor experience unprecedented breakthroughs in creativity

Joining the Dialogue: Practices for Ethical Research Writing Bettina Stumm, 2021-07-08 Joining the Dialogue offers an exciting new approach for teaching academic research writing to introductory students by drawing on communication ethics Holding to the current view that academic writing means situating ourselves in a research community and learning how to join the research conversations going on around us Joining the Dialogue proposes that how we engage in dialogue with other researchers in our community matters We not only read acknowledge and build on the research of others as we compose our work we also engage openly attentively critically and responsively to their ideas as we articulate our own With this in mind Joining the Dialogue is geared to helping students discover the key ethical practices of dialogue receptivity and response ability as they join a research conversation It also helps students master the dialogic structure of research essays as they write in and for their academic communities Combining an ethical approach with accessible prose dialogic structures and templates practical exercises and ample illustrations from across the disciplines Joining the Dialogue teaches students not only how to write research essays but also how to write those essays ethically as a dialogue with other researchers and readers

The Woman in the Moon Marjorie Saiser, 2019-09 2019 Nebraska Book Award The poems in this collection move into the past with her mother and father and also explore the present both with family and culture The poems range in quick flourishes of conventional subjects rendered in exquisite imagery and observations to everyday occurrences that are suddenly spiked with clear focus and complex movements Saiser's poems are intricate and graceful in their treatments of numerous subjects including landscape and evening grocery stores and roadways death and birth love and loss where sudden realizations seem at once deep and clear and natural The voice in these poems is fluid and sure

Seasons of Writing with AI: Master the Prompts, Systems, and Workflows to Supercharge Your Author Business Stacey Anderson, Steph Pajonas, Elizabeth Ann West, 2025-08-27 So you've started using AI but it's not the magic bullet you hoped for The output is generic the process is clunky and you're spending more time fixing text than writing it Sound familiar You're not alone Seasons of Writing with AI is your practical field guide to bridging the gap between AI's promise and its reality This isn't another beginner's guide or philosophical debate it's a collection of battle-tested strategies from 18 months of real world use by publishing authors who are thriving with AI Inside you'll discover Your Personal AI Style Find out if you're a Gardener Weaver Baker or Architect and build a workflow that actually works for you Advanced Prompting Systems Master Writing Briefs and Megaprompts to generate consistent high quality prose with minimal editing How to Speak AI's Language Overcome frustrating miscommunications and get the specific results you want every time Beyond the Manuscript Transform your marketing create stunning visuals and even produce audiobooks Stop wrestling with your AI and start a true creative partnership Your journey from frustration to mastery begins here I Have Nothing to Say about Fire Marjorie Saiser, 2019-09 2017 Nebraska Book Award This new collection by Nebraska poet Marjorie Saiser explores the notion of witnessing Particularly in our technological age when we have access to international news as it happens the question comes up what responsibility do individuals including those living in relatively quiet middle America have in regard to world events The poems in I Have Nothing to Say about Fire reference autobiographical elements marriage children parents in laws etc but they also reference global tragedy war terrorism genocide As we experience our own personal losses and triumphs what relationships should we strive for with family friends neighbors and the strangers around us particularly as their narratives push them forward into our and or the public's consciousness In this book Marjorie Saiser explores these essential questions and offers potential answers that may help all of us Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences Susan A. Nolan, Thomas E. Heinzen, 2011-02 Nolan and Heinzen's engaging introduction to statistics has captivated students with its easy readability and vivid examples drawn from everyday life The mathematics of statistical reasoning are made accessible with careful explanations and a helpful three tier approach to working through exercises Clarifying the Concepts Calculating the Statistics and Applying the Concepts New pedagogy end of chapter material and the groundbreaking learning space StatsPortal give students even more tools to help them master statistics than ever before In Conversation with Exercises Mike Palmquist, Barbara Wallraff, 2022-10-11 In Conversation with Exercises helps you think critically about why you're writing and who you're writing to while preparing you for all the kinds of writing you need to do The Life and Poetry of Ted Kooser Mary K. Stillwell, 2013-09-01 Like a flash of lightning it came to him the unathletic high school student Ted Kooser saw a future as a famous poet that promised everything glory immortality a bohemian lifestyle no more doing dishes no more cleaning his room and particularly important to the lonely teenager girls Unlike most kids with a sudden ambition Kooser winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry and thirteenth poet laureate of the United States made good on his dream But glory was a long time coming and along the way Kooser lived the life that has made his poetry what it is as deeply grounded in family work and the natural world as it is attuned to the nuances of language Just as so much of Kooser's own writing weaves geography history and family stories into its measures so does this first critical biography consider the poet's work and life together his upbringing in Iowa his studies in Nebraska with poet Karl Shapiro as mentor his career in insurance his family life his bout with cancer and always his poetry Combining a fine appreciation of Kooser's work and life this book finally provides a fuller and more complex picture of a writer who perhaps more than any other has brought the Great Plains and the Midwest lived large and small into the poetry of our day Refuge at DeSoto Bend Eamonn Wall, 2004 Wall records for us some of the resonant truths this bright life reveals about nature family memory hunger and public and private life in contemporary Ireland and America Write Like You Talk--Only Better Barb Sawyers,2012-01-23 What happens when you write like you talk only better You have fun like you have ever since you learned to talk Your writing flows You connect and make friends You think about what matters You see your writing accomplish your goals Here are 10 reasons why you need to read this book1 Build relationships with the people who matter to you 2 Reach out to many more 3 Create enjoyment for you and the people you connect with 4 Work with your first and favorite way to communicate talking 5 Avoid writer s block 6 Get to the point so you won t waste anyone s time 7 Remember the five grammar rules you need to look good 8 Write tight for social media and busy people 9 Advance to the next level of writing skill through techniques from movies music and other media 10 Move closer to fulfilling your potential The Freedom Writers Diary (20th Anniversary Edition) The Freedom Writers,Erin Gruwell,2007-04-24 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER The twentieth anniversary edition of the classic story of an incredible group of students and the teacher who inspired them featuring updates on the students lives new journal entries and an introduction by Erin Gruwell Now a public television documentary Freedom Writers Stories from the Heart In 1994 an idealistic first year teacher in Long Beach California named Erin Gruwell confronted a room of unteachable at risk students She had intercepted a note with an ugly racial caricature and angrily declared that this was precisely the sort of thing that led to the Holocaust She was met by uncomprehending looks none of her students had heard of one of the defining moments of the twentieth century So she rebooted her entire curriculum using treasured books such as Anne Frank s diary as her guide to combat intolerance and misunderstanding Her students began recording their thoughts and feelings in their own diaries eventually dubbing themselves the Freedom Writers Consisting of powerful entries from the students diaries and narrative text by Erin Gruwell The Freedom Writers Diary is an unforgettable story of how hard work courage and determination changed the lives of a teacher and her students In the two decades since its original publication the book has sold more than one million copies and inspired a major motion picture Freedom Writers And now with this twentieth anniversary edition readers are brought up to date on the lives of the Freedom Writers as they blend indispensable takes on social issues with uplifting stories of attending college and watch their own children follow in their footsteps The Freedom Writers Diary remains a vital read for anyone who believes in second chances New Directions in Travel Writing Studies Paul Smethurst,Julia Kuehn,2015-07-20 This collection focuses attention on theoretical approaches to travel writing with the aim to advance the discourse Internationally renowned as well as emerging scholars establish a critical milieu for travel writing studies as well as offer a set of exemplars in the application of theory to travel writing Stark Raving Obedience Ted Kallman, Isaiah Kallman,2013-02-22 Stark Raving Obedience will change the way you listen for God s voice It is a down to earth practical treatment of how to develop a listening ear to discern the voice of the God who speaks It teaches simple scriptural principles on developing a two way communicating relationship with God discerning God s will for everyday decisions praying in faith in the situations you face developing a lifestyle of obedience to God's voice Above all Stark Raving Obedience encourages and challenges the reader to pursue a passionate prayer relationship with Jesus Christ If you follow its principles this book will radically change your life as you learn to communicate and follow a speaking God The American Politics of French Theory Jason

Demers,2019-01-01 Working from the premise that May 68 is a shorthand that delimits an intensive decade of global revolt Jason Demers documents the cross pollination of French philosophy international activist movements and American countercultures From the assassinations of Martin Luther King Jr and George Jackson to the revolt at Columbia University the 1968 Democratic National Convention Woodstock and the Weather Underground Demers writes French theory into a constellation of American events and icons uncontained by national borders More than a compelling new take on the history of theory The American Politics of French Theory develops concepts gleaned from the work of Derrida Deleuze Guattari and Foucault providing new tools for thinking about translation theory and politics By recontextualizing French theory within a complex fabric of mass communication and global revolt Demers demonstrates why it is politically potent and methodologically necessary to think of translation associatively Essentials of Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences
