The internationally acclaimed actress Patricia Neal has been a star on stage film and television for nearly sixty years On Broadway she appeared in such lauded productions as Lillian Hellman's Another Part of the Forest for which she won the very first Tony Award and The Miracle Worker In Hollywood she starred opposite the likes of Ronald Reagan Gary Cooper John Wayne Paul Newman Fred Astaire and Tyrone Power in some thirty films Neal anchored such classic pictures as The Day the Earth Stood Still A Face in the Crowd and Breakfast at Tiffany's but she is perhaps best known for her portrayal of Alma Brown in Hud which earned her the Academy Award for Best Actress in 1963 But there has been much much more to Neal's life She was born Patsy Louise Neal on January 20 1926 in Packard Kentucky though she spent most of her childhood in Knoxville Tennessee Neal quickly gained attention for her acting abilities in high school community and college performances Her early stage successes were overshadowed by the unexpected death of her father in 1944 Soon after she left New York for Hollywood in 1947 Neal became romantically involved with Gary Cooper her married co star in The Fountainhead an attachment which brought them both a great deal of notoriety in the press and a great deal of heartache in their personal lives In 1953 Neal married famed children's author Roald Dahl a match that would bring her five children and thirty years of dramatic ups and downs In 1961 their son Theo was seriously injured in an automobile accident and required multiple neurosurgeries and years of rehabilitation the following year their daughter Olivia died of measles At the pinnacle of her screen career Patricia Neal suffered a series of strokes which left her in a coma for twenty one days Variety even ran a headline erroneously stating that she had died At the time Neal was pregnant with her and Dahl's fifth child Lucy who was born healthy a few months later

After a difficult recovery Neal returned to film acting earning a second Academy Award nomination for The Subject Was Roses. She appeared in a number of television movie roles in the 1970s and 1980s and won a Golden Globe for Best Actress in a Dramatic TV Movie in 1971 for her role in The Homecoming. Patricia Neal An Unquiet Life is the first critical biography detailing the actress's impressive film career and remarkable personal life. Author Stephen Michael Shearer has conducted numerous interviews with Neal, her professional colleagues and her intimate friends and was given access to the actress's personal papers. The result is an honest and comprehensive portrait of an accomplished woman who has lived her life with determination and bravado. Pennsylvania Road Builder, 1976. Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1917. A Companion to Indian Fiction in English Pier Paolo Piciucco, 2004. After the pioneer works by scholars such as Naik Narasimhaiah and Mukherjee and the thirty years of silence which followed their ground-breaking achievements, the companion appears on the scene striving to reinvigorate the tradition of panoramic studies of Indian literature in English. In the intervening period, Indian fiction in English has become of paramount importance in the wide context of postcolonial studies. An emergent crop of novelists belonging to the so-called New Generation has colourfully paved the way towards new artistic horizons, reinterpreting Western-derived literary models with inventive approaches. Complementary to their role, there is the articulate presence of a host of Indian scholars who in recent years have significantly influenced the course of this analysis and have vitally contributed to enlarging its scope well beyond the original boundaries of studies in literary criticism. The companion therefore addresses the exigencies of critics, teachers and students alike. All those who need to find quick points of reference in this wide field of studies by relying on a team of authoritative collaborators and specialists from all over the world. Great care was taken not only in selecting collaborators on the basis of their specialisation but also taking into account their cultural background in relation to the author they were to discuss. The book in fact has been organised to have what have been deemed to be the most representative authors in Indian fiction discussed in an essay-long chapter each structured to highlight crucial points such as biographical details, novels and critical reception. Each chapter includes a final bibliography complete with primary and secondary sources enabling the scholar to have immediate orientation on various specific topics. Finally, the book has an innovative section with synopses of novels planned to allow our readers to immediately place the authors analysed within the panorama of Indian fiction in English. The over 400 synopses included principally introduce works written by the novelists discussed at length in the previous chapters but along with them it is also possible to find summaries of works by authors who, although contributing in a significant way to the development of forms and techniques, do not feature in the first part. Contemporary Chinese Novels and Short Stories, 1949-1974 Meishi Tsai, 2020-03-17. An annotated bibliography of contemporary Chinese novels and short stories published between 1949 and 1974. Includes succinct summaries and bibliographic details including references to translations for virtually all fictional works published in China during this period Also includes author title and subject indexes The Builder ,1873 Book Review Digest ,1919 Engineering News and American Contract Journal ,1908 British Books ,1903 The Dragon Nimbus Novels Irene Radford,2007 RADFORD DRAGON NIMBUS VOL 01 Federal Reporter ,1927 The Surveyor & Municipal & County Engineer ,1908 Engineering News ,1908 Discarded: A Thriller Novel (Central Division Series, Book 3) Mark S. Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison, 2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark's Fiction is the first book-length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark's fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark's writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark's fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post-pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark's fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia's First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity's time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark's legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark's husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction's feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark s fiction
