Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction S. Ahlberg, 2016-04-08 Atlantic Afterlives in Contemporary Fiction offers fresh readings of what has been called transatlantic literature In selected twentieth and twenty first century texts it discovers a shift from oceanic place based knowledge to an atmospheric placeless circulation of information Consonant with the displacements of the Information Age this book reads contemporary narrative as it imagines and navigates today's virtual spaces An important conclusion of the book is that intellectual resources are finite and should be used sustainably Thus arguing against a conventional comparative approach this book proposes reading practices that resist the tendency toward an oversupply of reworked literary contexts that seems bent on matching the reach of the World Wide Web Instead the book reimagines place as a practice in the way it is communicated and narrated Ultimately this book empowers the reader to reimagine a future for narrative in the Information Age

one man's life altering odyssey to fulfill the dream of acquiring ownership of an island in the wilderness of Northwest Ontario Canada and how the whole adventure was triggered by a major snowstorm that blanketed the Chicago area in 1967 The Absolute Book Elizabeth Knox, 2021-02-09 A bewitching epic fantasy about a revenge killing a mysterious scroll box that has survived centuries of fires and the book that changed everything Intricately plotted and gorgeously written The Absolute Book is a cinematic tale that is by turns dark and dreamlike yet ultimately hopeful Deborah Harkness New York Times bestselling author of A Discovery of Witches An instant classic It is everything fantasy should be The Guardian Taryn Cornick believes that the past her sister's violent death and her own ill conceived revenge is behind her and she can get on with her life She has written a successful book about the things that threaten libraries insects damp light fire carelessness and uncaring but not all of the attention it brings her is good A policeman Jacob Berger questions her about a cold case Then there are questions about a fire in the library at her grandparents house and an ancient scroll box known as the Firestarter as well as threatening phone calls and a mysterious illness Finally a shadowy young man named Shift appears forcing Taryn and Jacob toward a reckoning felt in more than one world The Absolute Book is epic action packed fantasy in which hidden treasures are recovered wicked things resurface birds can talk and dead sisters are a living force It is a book of journeys and returns from contemporary England to Auckland New Zealand from a magical fairyland to Purgatory Above all it is a declaration of love for stories and the ways in which they shape our worlds and create gods out of mortals The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others Book Dealers' Weekly, 1925
