Driving Lessons Christopher B. Strain, 2025 Driving Lessons A Road Trip through American Travel Literature by Christopher B Strain is a study of American travel literature specifically a reflection on the tradition of the American road trip Strain sets out to understand what makes this custom a prototypically American one who travels and why through considerations of race class and gender Driving Lessons not only contextualizes earlier American travel narratives but also shows how these journeys of national discovery and personal redemption still resonate with readers and scholars The book deftly blends together the story of the author's own four month sojourn in an old van with the analysis of his literary predecessors travel narratives

West/Border/Road Katherine Ann Roberts, 2018-04-18 The North American entertainment industry is rapidly consolidating and new modes of technological delivery challenge Canadian content regulations An understanding of how Canadian culture negotiates its rapport with American genres has never been more timely West Border Road offers an interdisciplinary analysis of contemporary Canadian manifestations of three American genres the western the border and the road It situates close readings of literary film and television narratives from both English Canada and Quebec within a larger context of Canadian generic borrowing and innovation Katherine Ann Roberts calls upon canonical works in Canadian studies theories of genre and a wide range of scholarship from border studies cultural studies and film studies to examine how genre is appropriated and sometimes reworked and how these cultural narratives engage with discourses of contemporary Canadian nationhood The author elucidates Guy Vanderhaeghe's rewriting of the codes of the historical western to include the trauma of Aboriginal peoples Aritha van Herk's playful spoof on American western iconography the politics and perils of the representation of the Canada US border in CBC produced crime television and how the road genre inspires and constrains the Quebecois and Canadian road movie A reminder of the power and limitations of American genres West Border Road provides a nuanced perspective on Canadian engagement with cultural forms that may be imported but never foreign Film Noir and the Spaces of Modernity Edward Dimendberg, 2004-06-15 Exploring classic examples of film noir such as The Asphalt Jungle Double Indemnity and The Naked City alongside many lesser known works Dimendberg confirms that noir is not simply a reflection of modernity but a virtual continuation of the spaces of the metropolis Globalizing Automobility Gijs Mom, 2020-08-07 Why has car society proven so durable even in the face of mounting environmental and economic crises In this follow up to his magisterial Atlantic Automobility Gijs Mom traces the global spread of the automobile in the postwar era and investigates why adopting more sustainable forms of mobility has proven so difficult Drawing on archival research as well as wide ranging forays into popular culture Mom reveals here the roots of the exuberance excess and danger that define modern automotive culture Driving Spaces Peter Merriman, 2009-07-31 Peter Merriman traces the social and cultural histories and geographies of driving spaces through an examination of the design construction and use of England's M1 motorway in the 1950s and 1960s A first of its kind academic study examining the production and consumption of the landscapes and spaces of a British motorway An interdisciplinary approach engaging with theoretical and empirical work from sociology history cultural studies anthropology and geography Contains 38 high quality illustrations Based on extensive original archive work Hubris and Hybrids Mikael Hård, Andrew Jamison, 2013-09-13 Human societies have not always taken on new technology in appropriate ways Innovations are double edged swords that transform relationships among people as well as between human societies and the natural world Only through successful cultural appropriation can we manage to control the hubris that is fundamental to the innovative enterprising human spirit and only by becoming hybrids combining the human and the technological will we be able to make effective use of our scientific and technological achievements This broad cultural history of technology and science provides a range of stories and reflections about the past discussing areas such as film industrial design and alternative environmental technologies and including not only European and North American but also Asian examples to help resolve the contradictions of contemporary high tech civilization

DIY House Shows and Music Venues in the US David Verbuč, 2021-09-29 DIY House Shows and Music Venues in the US is an interdisciplinary study of house concerts and other types of DIY do it yourself music venues and events in the United States such as warehouses all ages clubs and guerrilla shows with its primary focus on West Coast American DIY locales It approaches the subject not only through a cultural analysis of sound and discourse as it is common in popular music studies but primarily through an ethnographic examination of place space and community Focusing on DIY houses music venues social spaces and local and translocal cultural geographies the author examines how American DIY communities constitute themselves in relation to their social and spatial environment The ethnographic approach shows the inner workings of American DIY culture and how the particular people within particular places strive to achieve a social ideal of an intimate community This research contributes to the sparse range of Western popular music studies especially regarding rock punk and experimental music that approach their subject matter through a participatory ethnographic research Nightmare

Alley Mark Osteen, 2013-01-30 Classic film noir offers more than pesky private eyes and beautiful bad girls it explores the quest for the not so attainable American dream Winner of the CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title of the Choice ACRL Desperate young lovers on the lam They Live by Night a cynical con man making a fortune as a mentalist Nightmare Alley a penniless pregnant girl mistaken for a wealthy heiress No Man of Her Own a wounded veteran who has forgotten his own name Somewhere in the Night this gallery of film noir characters challenges the stereotypes of the wise cracking detective and the alluring femme fatale Despite their differences they all have something in common a belief in self reinvention Nightmare Alley is a thorough examination of how film noir disputes this notion at the heart of the American Dream Central to many of these films Mark Osteen argues is the story of an individual trying by dint of hard work or more often illicit enterprises to overcome his or her origins and achieve material success In the wake of World War II the noir genre tested the dream of upward mobility and the ideas of individualism liberty equality and free enterprise that accompany it Employing an impressive array of theoretical perspectives including psychoanalysis art history feminism and music theory and combining close reading with original primary source research Nightmare Alley proves both the diversity of classic noir and its potency This provocative and wide ranging study revises and refreshes our understanding of noir s characters themes and cultural significance Driving Women Deborah Clarke, 2007-04-15 Publisher description Refiguring the Map of Sorrow Mark

Christopher Allister, 2001 This study brings together the genres of autobiography and environmental literature It examines a form of grief narrative in which writers deal with mourning by standing outside the text in writing about the natural world and inside it in making that exposition part of the grieving process Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles

Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kathryn Walchester, 2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords: A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form. Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words; the style is more essayistic than encyclopaedic, with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives. The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension: the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity, providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing. Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading.
