Missional: Impossible!

Francis Rothery,2014-01-07 Mainline Christianity in the West is dying Addiction to hierarchical and bureaucratic power is killing it A management god and a mission god have usurped the Way of Christ In the midst of decline the missional movement is attempting to reboot the church Its goal is to remake a New Christian West through mission leadership mapping and planning Yet it is trapped in the language and methods of modernity Its final solution is a polarizing vision of cultural domination by one social group the Christians The Way of Life and Truth has been forgotten Christ is not a conquering King a written Word or an absolute Idea but a divine Human Being Social wholeness can only be realized through a rediscovery of Conversation Reconciliation and Empowerment These reflect Christ s practices of eternal dialogue and reciprocal giving in small communities Through this mutual Way of Life people of all faiths and none can discover deep within themselves Our Un Known G d A gentle voice is whispering in the heart of all humanity I am the Way

Murdick,2011-07-01 Private Fire Matthew James Babcock,2011-04-18 Matthew J Babcock's Private Fire Robert Francis's Ecopoetry and Prose is an examination of the life and work of one of America's most intriguing but tragically obscure writers. Babcock uses his own personal relationship with Robert Francis's work which emphasizes conservation and connectedness to our natural surroundings to illuminate both overtones and nuances that are undoubtedly useful to those interested in poetry and ecology. Babcock begins with a brief biographical section intended to set the tone for readers previously unfamiliar with Robert Francis and then continues into an analysis of the influence of Emily Dickinson and Robert Frost on Francis's work. Starting in Chapter Three Private Fire shifts into the realm of literary analysis and discusses various angles of Francis's work from representations of gender and sexual identity prose contributions both fiction and non fiction religion and politics to themes of conservation place making experimental poetic styles and asceticism finishing with a discussion of Francis's only long narrative poem Valhalla. This poem joins other prophetic works in musing upon environmental apocalypticism. Matthew J Babcock finishes this detailed and thoughtful volume with concluding meditations that situate Robert Francis with his contemporaries helping readers to locate him historically and contextually amongst other 20th century writers. By using biography and literary theory as the lens through which one interprets Francis's work Private Fire Robert Francis's Ecopoetry and Prose successfully navigates the literary and cultural environment surrounding a poet who himself was so connected with the world around him.

To Read a Poem Donald Hall,1992 To Read a Poem begins the study of poetry by examining whole poems emphasizing the goal of reading is not the analysis of parts but the understanding of wholes. For a fuller definition of poetry's elements later chapters concentrate on parts. Selections are frequently modern or contemporary supplementing them with biographical notes on all poets. To Read a Poem will help students read poetry with intelligence gusto and discrimination.
