Security of India's Ports, Coast and Maritime Trade Dr. Mohit Nayal, 2021-06-01 India's rise as a global power in the 21st century will be backed with a strong blue economy The high volumetric trade activities through its coastal region mainly due to its geostrategic location and efficient links with the vast potential market in the hinterland and other landlocked states provides it unmatched leverage Among such promising enterprising attracting global investments and trade the non conventional security threats within the Indian Ocean region and India's ports and coast cannot be ignored Therefore to address these challenges the law at the seas formulated by various global organisations and other national and international regulatory mechanisms become essential for all those directly or indirectly involved in India's maritime security. Over the years many state coastal security agencies have evolved with specific potential and restrictions which creates a certain conditionality of the existing non conventional security challenges and maritime conflicts with its neighbours. The successful use of security related technology to outpace such non conventional threats creates a demand for further bolstering such technologies for India's advantage. Besides these prevailing threats to the ports and coastal region the environmental security challenges also directly impact humans and cannot be undermined. The book covers all these facets in detail identifying the specific fault lines and makes recommendations to address the non conventional security challenges of India's ports coast and maritime trade. The book will be of interest to policymakers academicians practitioners scholars and all those individuals and institutes interested in India's Ports Coastal and Maritime Security.

The Making of International Law in Korea

Seokwoo Lee, Hee Eun Lee, 2016-05-02 The Republic of Korea was colonized in the early 20th century achieved its independence and rose from the ashes of the Korean War to become an Asian power. Korea's ascent coincides neatly with the advent of globalization and growing importance of international law in managing the increasing interactions between states and other non state entities such as multinational corporations non governmental organizations and international organizations like the United Nations. The Making of International Law in Korea addresses the developments of international law in Korea from human rights concerns to law of the sea issues from maritime delimitation and access to ocean resources to other non security matters. Offered as a textbook for academics and students the authors demonstrate the increasingly important role of international law in shaping international relations in Northeast Asia and Korea.

Nusantara and Law of the Sea Kresno Buntoro, 2022-12-22 The vast ocean and seas swathe an enormous space of our planet and are a crucial part of our existence. Their enigmatic depths layers flows desert of waves wilderness of water great wide of rhythm have long been a source of fascination awe and fear for mankind. Therefore it's no surprise that there are so many interests in terms of domination environment space frontier socio cultural economic and resources. From earliest recorded history glory and triumph of Nusantara has depend on sea ocean maritime. The existence of Indonesia consists of land sea ocean and air then moulded within the socio cultural of Indonesian named Nusantara. People of Indonesia believe that the ocean sea is not unglued between inhabitants but it brought people together become one nation. The ocean has always been an important source of food O₂ Energy and it has also served trade and commerce adventure and discovery. The sea ocean have also brought threat to Nusantara considering the threats are mostly from through in the sea ocean. Nusantara has been always magnetic many countries it is not only because of natural resources but the geographical setting of Nusantara. Indonesia has to be glory and triumph the key factor for Indonesia is how to control the waters meaning Indonesia has to have capability to monitor detect and respond issues then utilise the sea ocean for the interest of Indonesia. Considering economic and security matters are concerned the need and interest of Indonesia are relatively similar to international community user States or ships owners which are safety and security of navigation and there is no potential damage to the environment But for Indonesia the interest is more prominent and broader because Indonesia has to live with it if anything untoward happens in Indonesia waters Hence the interest of Indonesia in terms of navigational routes straits and choke points extend beyond economic and security Indonesian waters is the existence of Nusantara The book intends to explore and examine the interest of Indonesia vis a vis international laws regulate the ocean sea and maritime matters
