Their tendency to center memory in sound rather than sight reveals an unusual musical birthright Robert Cochran has constructed a composite portrait of this family for whom music is the center of life He examines their lived experience as they anchor their history through song singing and the playing of musical instruments The Gilberts are wonderful exemplars of the mediation of oral tradition and when approached through their music they reveal themselves as remarkable individuals with an elaborate and firmly held sense of their unique identities A decade in the making Singing in Zion is written with a memoirist's sense of family history and an ethnographer's sense of the rich encounter of worlds This narrative has a seductive simplicity that conveys much of the Gilbert family's charm while at the same time establishing a broader framework that is firmly academic It will be enjoyed by all readers Slab of Peacock Narasimha Rao
