Saints Animals:

Saints and Animals in the Middle Ages Dominic Alexander, 2008 A thorough investigation of the saint and animal topos its origins growth and development

Companion Species Mathilde van Dijk, 2024-11-28 This book explores the connection between saints and animals and how the power over animals has been a characteristic of saints from their beginnings in the Early Church The connection between saints and humans is examined with the saint as a human rising beyond humanity touching the divine and the non human animal as a creature which is connected to and yet removed from humanity and which may have a connection to the sacred itself This volume transcends traditional religious boundaries by including Christian saints as well as similar figures in Islam and Norse religions It operates on the cusp of two exciting and innovative fields hagiographic and animal studies It shows the complexities of human animal interaction and the sacred authorities clashing with experiential knowledge metaphorical animals as opposed to real animals ranging from helpers or opponents of saints disguises of demons or identity markers of a human community Companion Species will be of value to scholars and students interested in medieval history Europe and religion as well as social and cultural history

Power Animals & Shamanism Dr. Angela Fetzner, 2019-12-01 Regaining a lost soul In this book the millennia old healing techniques of shamanism are presented clearly and appealingly The book is meant to give readers an overview of the complex and manifold facets of shamanism and to encourage them to reach out to their respective power animal Power animals spiritual companions and leaders Power animals are spiritual companions and soulmates and each has a personal relationship with its human counterpart who is thereby empowered energized deepened and motivated The person is enabled to find his or her true purpose to develop more fully and to avoid pitfalls is protected kept healthy and even healed and can turn to the animal for help at any time The more he or she does so the more intense their partnership becomes Some partnerships last a lifetime How do you find your power animal This book explains how to find honor and bond with your power animal and thereby be strengthened and healed It explains how the animal may be lost and how the loss may be averted The main power animals The most important power animals and their meaning and message for humans are discussed in detail revealing what positive qualities may be transferred from one to you The worldview of shamanism This book offers all key information about shamanism and how to use it The division of the shamanic cosmos into the upper middle and lower worlds is explained as are details of shamanic journeys The role of the master of animals in particular is examined as is the difference between spirit helpers and totem animals The basic features of neo shamanism are shown too The shaman s career Shamans are mediators between worlds They have a special spiritual power can change their state of consciousness at will and are sent into trance mostly by drumbeats Power animals in ancient Egypt Animals in Heaven? Terry Martin,2024-09-26 Christians of all traditions have often puzzled with the question Do dogs go to heaven Drawing on Catholic teaching and on his long pastoral experience as a parish priest Terry Martin expands that concept to consider wider issues around all animals domesticated and free living and why they are here Within a context of Christian faith he seeks to understand the place of animals in God s complex creation and the relationship that human beings have for good or ill with those animals More than that he looks at the big questions which so many ask about who under God animals are and what meaning if any animal lives have from a Catholic Christian perspective A Snarl Theology John Francis Pearring,John Sorensen,2023-01-20 A Snarl Theology calls God a merciful creator a big picture divinity bigger than anything imaginable Scripture confirms that in the restoration of the world and all its environs there will be a settlement between God and his creatures A covenant to set animals and us back as we were meant to be I will make a covenant for them on that day with the beasts of the field with the birds of the air and with the things that crawl on the ground Hosea 2 20 Redemption is the divine act of follow through regarding covenant washing away our faults defects and foibles and taking us into the arms of the divine Are animals rewarded with redemption like us with a full restoration To imagine that God will not reward these martyred creatures who play a significant role in human redemption weakens the concept and promise of paradise Animals are sentient beyond our understanding residents in a universe where God communicates with everyone This animal kingdom theology implies that animals too hear God s voice A Snarl Theology s hope for animals to be our redemptive allies shouldn t cancel doctrine upset dogma or countermand Christianity It should increase our love of God Animals ,1888 Critical Animal Studies and Social Justice Amber E. George,Anthony J. Nocella II,2022-03-03 An essential read for activists community organizers and justice scholars Critical Animal Studies and Social Justice Critical Theory Dismantling Speciesism and Total Liberation is a collection that combines scholarship and activism in nine ground breaking and provocative chapters The book includes contributions from around the world influenced by critical theory feminism social justice political theory media studies environmental justice food justice disability studies and Black liberation By promoting total liberation and liberatory politics these essays challenge the reader to think about new approaches to justice equity diversity and inclusion The contributors examine and disrupt many of the exclusionary assumptions and behaviors by those working toward justice and liberation encouraging the reader to reflect on their own thoughts and actions

Facing the Wild Chilla Bulbeck, 2012-06-25 What do wild animals mean to humans Will they survive both rampant habitat loss and extinction caused by human encroachment and as ecotourists our enthusiasm for them With ecotourism now the fastest growing segment of tourism and encounters with wild animals be it swimming with dolphins going on safari or bird watching ever more popular these are critical questions Yet until now little has been known about why people crave encounters with wild animals and the meaning for the ecotourism industry conservation efforts and society at large Facing the Wild is the first serious empirical examination of why people seek out animals in their natural environment what the desire for this experience tells us about the meanings of animals nature authenticity and wilderness in contemporary industrialized societies and whether visitors change their environmental perspectives and behaviour as the custodians of wildlife parks would like them to The book explores the contradictions and ambivalence that so many people experience in the presence of wild nature in loving it we may diminish it and in the act of wanting to see it we may destroy it Ultimately the book makes a case for respectful stewardship of a hybrid nature and provides insight for both practitioners and ecotourists alike

The Animals' Friend, 1900 The Animal's Defender and Zoophilist, 1904 The Animal Ethics Reader Susan J. Armstrong, Richard G. Botzler, 2016-11-18 The Animal Ethics Reader is an acclaimed anthology containing both classic and contemporary readings making it ideal for anyone coming to the subject for the first time It provides a thorough introduction to the central topics controversies and ethical dilemmas surrounding the treatment of animals covering a wide range of contemporary issues such as animal activism genetic engineering and environmental ethics The extracts are arranged thematically under the following clear headings Theories of Animal Ethics Nonhuman Animal Experiences Primates and Cetaceans Animals for Food Animal Experimentation Animals and Biotechnology Ethics and Wildlife Zoos and Aquariums Animal Companions Animal Law and Animal Activism Readings from leading experts in the field including Peter Singer Bernard E Rollin and Jane Goodall are featured as well as selections from Tom Regan Jane Goodall Donald Griffin Temple Grandin Ben A Minter Christine Korsgaard and Mark Rowlands Classic extracts are well balanced with contemporary selections helping to present the latest developments in the field This revised and updated Third Edition includes 31 new readings on a range of subjects including animal rights captive chimpanzees industrial farm animal production genetic engineering keeping cetaceans in captivity animal cruelty and animal activism The Third Edition also is printed with a slightly larger page format and in an easier to read typeface Featuring contextualizing introductions by the editors study questions and further reading suggestions as the end of each chapter this will be essential reading for any student taking a course in the subject With a new foreword by Bernard E Rollin Making Magic Briana Saussy, 2019-06-04 Re enchant your life with this book of rituals ceremonies and practices for personal growth anchored in the hidden power of everyday things We all have a deep capacity to make magic and to do it as easily as we breathe or open our eyes This is not a matter of belief You can discover your own capacity for magic in your own direct experience Briana Saussy When you think of magic do you imagine something supernatural extraordinary or beyond your everyday reality Many of us are drawn to magic because we think there s something out there that can bring enchantment and wonder back into our lives Yet there s a secret to real magic the extraordinary is much closer than you may think With Making Magic expert teacher Briana Saussy invites you to discover a practice of magic that will bring a new depth and power to each moment act and choice of your life Through teaching stories wisdom from a wide variety of world traditions and no nonsense practices you can easily weave into your daily routine Briana will help you reconnect with the wild and creative force of magic that is always around and within you waiting for you to remember As you explore this path of transformation you ll discover resources of magic that permeate your life including Doors and thresholds ways we cross between worlds Communication creating magic with your voice body intentions and relationships Holy helpers ancestors angels saints and spirit beings who guide and support you Water and washing access the revitalizing energy of water when you drink or bathe Textiles and threads how to loosen mend or bind up supportive energies Candles and fire elemental power to bring light to darkness and burn away what no longer serves you Kitchen magic using food to nourish your whole self and reconnect you with nature Talismans infuse your beloved objects with sacred purpose and supportive power Magic is the most real part of any real life the spark illuminating the authentic core of every experience writes Briana Saussy If you are ready to enter a world that is ripe with possibility and rediscover the electric wildness of your life here is an essential resource for Making Magic as only you can The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife Max Foran, 2018-04-10 Hardly a day goes by without news of the extinction or endangerment of yet another animal species followed by urgent but largely unheeded calls for action An eloquent denunciation of the failures of Canada s government and society to protect wildlife from human exploitation Max Foran s The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife argues that a root cause of wildlife depletions and habitat loss is the culturally ingrained beliefs that underpin management practices and policies Tracing the evolution of the highly contestable assumptions that define the human wildlife relationship Foran stresses the price wild animals pay for human self interest Using several examples of government oversight at the federal provincial and territorial levels from the Species at Risk Act to the Biodiversity Strategy Protected Areas Network and provincial management plans this volume shows that wildlife policies are as much or more about human needs priorities and profit as they are about preservation Challenging established concepts including ecological integrity adaptive management sport hunting as conservation and the flawed belief that wildlife is a renewable resource the author compels us to recognize animals as sentient individuals and as integral components of complex ecological systems A passionate critique of contemporary wildlife policy The Subjugation of Canadian Wildlife calls for belief change as the best hope for an ecologically healthy wildlife rich Canada Indigenous Perceptions of the End of the World Rosalyn Bold, 2019-06-29 This edited volume constructs a cosmopolitics of climate change consulting small scale sustainable communities on whether the world is ending and why and how we can take action to prevent it By comparing scientific and indigenous accounts of the same phenomenon contributors seek to broaden Western understandings of what climate change constitutes In this context existing cosmologies are challenged opening spaces for hegemonic narratives to enter into conversation with the non modern and construct worlds otherwise situations of world change and renewal through climate change Bold brings together perspectives from Central America Mexico the Amazon and the Andes to converse with scientific narratives of climate change and create cracks that bring new worlds into being for readers Live of the Irish Saints, with Special Festivals, and the Commemorations of Holy Persons O'Hanlon John Canon (Irish Catholic priest), 1873

Animal Sacrifice and Religious Freedom David M. O'Brien, 2004 The Santeria religion of Cuba the Way of the Saints mixes West African Yoruba culture with Catholicism Similar to Haitian voodoo Santeria has long practiced animal sacrifice in certain rites But when Cuban immigrants brought those rituals to Florida local authorities were suddenly confronted with a controversial situation that pitted the regulation of public health and morality against religious freedom After Ernesto Pichardo established a Santeria church in Hialeah in the 1980s the city of Hialeah responded by passing ordinances banning ritual animal sacrifice Although on the surface those ordinances seemed general in intent they were clearly aimed at Pichardo's church When Pichardo subsequently sued the city a federal court ruled in the latter's favor in effect privileging the regulation of public health and morality over the church's free exercise of its religion The U S Supreme Court heard Pichardo's appeal in 1993 and unanimously decided that the city had overstepped its bounds in targeting this particular religious group however the court was sharply divided regarding the basis of its decision Three concurring opinions registered distinctly different views of the First Amendment the limits of government regulation and the religious freedom of minorities In the end the nine justices collectively concluded that freedom of religious belief was absolute while the freedom to practice the tenets of any faith were subject to non discriminatory local regulations David O'Brien one of America's foremost scholars of the Court now illuminates this controversy and its significance for law government and religion in America His lively account takes us behind the scenes at every stage of the litigation to reveal a riveting case with more twists and turns than a classic whodunit Ranging with equal ease from primitive magic to municipal politics and to the most arcane points of constitutional law O'Brien weaves a compelling and instructive tale with a fascinating array of politicians lawyers jurists civil libertarians and animal rights advocates Offering sharp insights into the key issues and personalities he highlights cultural clashes large and small while maintaining a balance for both the needs of government and the religious rights of individuals The Santeria case reaffirmed that our laws must be generally applicable and neutral and may not discriminate against particular religions Tracing the path to that conclusion Animal Sacrifice and Religious Freedom provides a provocative and learned account of one of the most unusual and contentious religious freedom cases in American history
