Faulkner and the Craft of Fiction Doreen Fowler, Ann J. Abadie, 2010-01-06 In 1944 William Faulkner wrote to Malcolm Cowley I'm telling the same story over and over which is myself and the world That's all a writer ever does he tells his own biography in a thousand different terms With these words Faulkner suggests that what changes in the course of his prolific novel writing career is not so much the content but the style the thousand different terms of his fiction The essays in Faulkner and the Craft of Fiction first presented at the 1987 Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference at the University of Mississippi focus on Faulkner's narrative inventiveness on how Faulkner like his character Benjy in The Sound and the Fury relentlessly kept trying to say The contributors' authorities on Faulkner's narrative offer a wide variety of critical approaches to Faulkner's fiction writing process Cleanth Brooks for example applies the strategies of New Criticism to Faulkner's rendering of the heroic and pastoral modes Judith L Sensibar attempts to locate biographical sources for repeated Faulknerian paradigms and Philip M Weinstein draws on the theories of the Marxist Althusser and the French psychoanalyst Lacan The topics examined are similarly wide ranging
