Painter & Curator Julia Vázquez,2024-11-04 This book is the first to address the curatorial career of Diego Vel zquez painter to King Philip IV of Spain and chamberlain of his royal palace It investigates the role that Vel zquez played in overseeing the display of the Habsburg art collection then the richest in the western world and the role in turn that this practice played in his creative trajectory between his arrival at the Spanish court in 1623 and his death in 1660 This book thus recasts Vel zquez s career as an episode in the history of the curator Early Modern Habsburg Women Anne J.

Cruz,Maria Galli Stampino,2016-05-06 As the first comprehensive volume devoted entirely to women of both the Spanish and Austrian Habsburg royal dynasties spanning the sixteenth and the seventeenth centuries this interdisciplinary collection illuminates their complex and often contradictory political functions and their interrelations across early modern national borders The essays in this volume investigate the lives of six Habsburg women who as queens consort and queen regent duchesses a vicereine and a nun left an indelible mark on the diplomatic and cultural map of early modern Europe Contributors examine the national and transnational impact of these notable women through their biographies and explore how they transferred their cultural religious and political traditions as the women moved from one court to another Early Modern Habsburg Women investigates the complex lives of Philip II's daughter the Infanta Catalina Micaela 1567-1597 her daughter Margherita of Savoy Vicereine of Portugal 1589-1655 and Maria Maddalena of Austria Grand Duchess of Florence 1589-1631. The second generation of Habsburg women that the volume addresses includes Philip IV's first wife Isabel of Borbón 1602-1644 who became a Habsburg by marriage Rudolph II's daughter Sor Ana Dorotea 1611-1694 the only Habsburg nun in the collection and Philip IV's second wife Mariana of Austria 1634-1696 queen regent and mother to the last Spanish Habsburg. Through archival documents pictorial and historical accounts literature and correspondence as well as cultural artifacts such as paintings jewelry and garments this volume brings to light the impact of Habsburg women in the broader historical political and cultural contexts. The essays fill a scholarly need by covering various phases of the lives of early modern royal women who often struggled to sustain their family loyalty while at the service of a foreign court even when protecting and preparing their heirs for rule.

Great Houses of Havana Hermes Mallea, 2011-11-08 Great Houses of Havana celebrates one hundred years of creativity design and style that made the city the Paris of the Caribbean. Cuba's social history is woven throughout the book. Vintage photographs illustrate Havana's sophisticated lifestyle the masked balls yacht club picnics and dynastic weddings of fashionable Cubans and their international guests. After Taste. Critique of insufficient reason Slavko Kacunko, 2021-06-02 After Taste is an inquiry into a field of study dedicated to the reconsideration reconstruction and rehabilitation of the concept of Taste. Taste is the category whose systematic historical and actual dimensions have traditionally been located in a variety of disciplines. The actuality and potential of the study is based on a variety of collected facts from readings and experiences which materialize in the following features. One concept figurative Taste two thinking traditions analytic and synthetic continental and three interrelated dimensions systematic historic and actual are presented in three volumes. As such the study presents a salient comprehensive companion for wider readership of humanities approaching conceptions of Taste for the first time. Moreover After Taste is intended for anyone who hopes to make a further contribution to the subject. Since its appearance and apparently short triumph some 250 years ago the concept of non-literary Taste remained the linchpin of aesthetic theory and practice but also a category outreaching aesthetics Taste as the personal unity of the production theory and criticism of art and literature which was still largely taken as a given in the eighteenth century has meanwhile given way to a highly differentiated art world in which aesthetic discourse is placed in such a way that it can seemingly no longer have a conceptual or linguistic effect on general opinion making The critical role of Taste judges ratings and rankings in the feuilleton politics and social media on the one hand and the responding search for new canons on the other have had a huge impact on the academic and popular discourse today However Taste s impact on society is in fact all encompassing and yet without getting even close to the magnetic North of the academic compass After Taste fills the gaps of systematic research by a comprehensive tracing of the emergence of the doctrines discourses and disciplinary dimensions of Taste up to the peak of its systematic and historical trajectory in the eighteenth century and onwards into the present day The guiding goal is a post disciplinary rehabilitation of the contested category as a preparation for its productive usage in emerging academic and popular contexts Three intertwined research hypotheses form the guiding goal of an overall study of the agencies of Taste its institutionalizations and expert cultures The 1 first part provides a missing systematic perspective on the concept of Taste as a key factor for understanding the human faculties value theories and practices of valuating The 2 second part traces the events at the peak of Taste s systematic and historical trajectories up until the late eighteenth century and verifies the historiographical hypothesis about the instrumentality of Taste for the production reception and distribution of culture The 3 third part reconstructs the major moments in which the contested concept of Taste experiences its post disciplinary rehabilitation in preparation for its future productive usage in the academic and popular discourses and practices It shows how the category of Taste became the foundation legitimation and the catalyst for the emerging division of labour faculties and disciplines confirming the hypothesis of the immense impact and actuality of Taste in the contemporary world El salón de los espejos encontrados Jaime Moreno Villarreal, 1995 DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Cuba DK Eyewitness, 2017-08-15
