Salt Of The Earth Land Of The Living Series:

Land of the Living Ivor MacDonald, 2005-10-03 A flourishing earth that reflects the diversity bounty and beauty of its Creator must be cared for There are compelling reasons for all Christians rural and urban to be concerned for the land If you love the Creator you must love his creation and to love his creation you must love the communities that are charged with looking after it Land of the Living reflects on some of the pressures on agricultural communities today and argues that the land is still spiritually important and has an important place in God's eternal purposes Issues such as urbanisation technology mobility and the importance of roots globalisation and food are viewed through the twin lenses of rural life and theology

Blessed Living C. Don Jones, 2025-07-11 The Beatitudes are gifts to the church to share with the world Yet some Christians either do not know them or hesitate to practice them This book asks are such teachings relevant today Would they work if we tried them Can they make any real difference in the world We must try to keep these goals for living in the world Do we live in a world of righteousness justice and peace Has seeking secular authority helped the church remake the world Blessed Living is a book that compares the way of Jesus to how Christians tend to present ourselves to the world It attempts to draw conclusions about how we should live out the faith in the world This book demonstrates how the New Testament reflects the Beatitudes and makes comparisons to familiar stories from the Old Testament for mourners those seeking justice and mercy Blessed Living is designed for individual seekers believers and small discussion groups It is recommended for people who look for a better way Man. Temple of the Living God Roberto Pla, Our one and only real purpose in writing this work has been to awaken love for the whole Christ and when we speak of the whole Christ we are referring both to the Christ who died for mankind in Jerusalem more than two thousand years ago love for whom has been encouraged by manifest exegesis since the beginning of the Christian era and at the same time to the Christ preexisting and eternal Although both are one and the same being if we speak of the whole Christ we cannot disregard the inseparable Christ who from the beginning has lain forgotten unknown crucified within every man and who is only waiting to reveal his immortal divine presence invoked by love and faith Then the true beatitude of his resurrection will arise in every man Pag 38 The purpose of this work is to awaken in some men awareness that the canonical New Testament texts express a dual hermeneutic and exegesis makes it possible once one has assimilated a first reading which we shall call manifest to undertake a second reading one that will be more difficult to apprehend in order to find through it a new meaning which the Christian hagiographers called hidden or secret Pag 28 Design for Living J.
