Scripture in the World Religions Harold G. Coward, 2000-08 In this systematic and accessible analysis Harold Coward carefully explores the scriptures written and spoken of six major world faiths. He examines their interpretation, their role in devotion and education and their relationships with each other. Sacred Word and Sacred Text Harold G. Coward, 1988. This fascinating study of the world's sacred texts explains how the value of written scripture over the oral/aural experience is characteristic of recent Western history. Even today it is atypical of how most believers experience scripture. Sacred Word and Sacred Text demonstrates how scripture historically has partaken of both the oral and the written traditions and argues that of the two it is the oral world which has the greater power to transform lives from the back cover. Anthology of World Scriptures Robert E. Van Voorst, 1997. This anthology includes the most notable and instructive scriptures of Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Sikhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Shinto, Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. The context for applying these readings is also provided through a short introduction at the beginning of each chapter. Looseleaf for Scriptures of the World's Religions 7e James Fieser, John Powers, Dr., 2021-02-01. This new edition of Scriptures of the World's Religions uses selections from scriptures to examine the world's religions. It emphasizes religions that are practiced today and features English translations that are accessible to the layperson. This edition examines the collected sacred texts revered by these religions themselves. There are special benefits to exploring the world's religions through selections from their scriptures. In most cases the sacred texts are the oldest written documents in the tradition and we gain a sense of immediate connection with these religions by studying the same documents that followers have been reading for millennia.
