Karel Appel Karel Appel, Rudi Fuchs, Danubiana, Meulensteen Art Museum, 2005 No discussion of postwar Dutch art or postwar European art is complete without mentioning Karel Appel whom many consider Holland's most important painter Appel attended the Academy of Arts in Amsterdam from 1940 to 1943 and then bided his time painting landscapes and portraits in an era when artists were forbidden to buy materials or exhibit unless they joined the German Chamber of Culture After the liberation as reproductions of works by Picasso and others began to find their way to Holland Appel rebelled against his studio training founded several avant garde groups including Cobra and then moved to Paris Years of travel and experimentation with subjects colors and materials left him with a close relationship to the American art community and studios all over the world Appel is a sculptor and a ceramist too but he is above all an expressionist a man of passion led by spontaneity who has conversely made a lasting mark Karel Appel, a gesture of colour Jean-François Lyotard, 2009 Karel Appel A gesture of colour is the first of a series of five volumes bringing together the most important writings of Jean-François Lyotard 1924 1998 on contemporary art and artists The book he devoted to the art of Karel Appel 1921 2006 is without doubt one of the most complete and inspired texts of all the writing included in the series Neither the original French manuscript nor the English translation has ever been published before and their presentation face to face should constitute a considerable plus In this book Lyotard presents Karel Appel s matterism as an offer of presence presence deferred it is the visual where every predicate is suspended the visual touched gesture of colour more than property of colour appearance at the edge of the abyss Christine Buci Glucksmann s epilogue situates Karel Appel A gesture of colour within the whole of Lyotard s writings on art and his subsequent work P 4 of cover The Sculpture of Karel Appel [Gribaudo, 1963].
